Day Sponsorships are still available

Since April, The LifeFM has offered its supporters a new feature that blesses and honors loved ones all day long via radio message.

Here's how it works: a Day Sponsor selects a date, commits to a minimum pledge of $500 and provides The LifeFM with the relevant information.

The customized announcements are aired repetitiously between 6 AM and 6 PM; any day of the week can be chosen.

A Day Sponsor can be an individual, a church, a business or any other supporter of The LifeFM. Some examples of what is sponsored include: wedding anniversaries, birthdays (grandchildren, late relative, etc.) and more. It's a unique way to publicly declare your love and appreciation for someone special, while also supporting a good cause. Many dates are still available!

Your donation of $500 is tax-deductible and a receipt will be provided for your 2017 tax records.

For more information, please contact Karen at The LifeFM: 877-700-8047 x150.

In the Spotlight Dennis Smith Get Up & Go Morning Show Co-host

An essential part of The LifeFM's daily broadcasting schedule is its Get-Up & Go Morning Show, which airs weekday mornings 6-10 on The LifeFM Radio Network.

The LifeFM listeners are given a jump-start to their mornings, and refreshed by the amusing bantering that occurs between host Rodney Baucom and co-host Dennis Smith. The family-friendly music format and light-hearted dialogue is a perfect fit for radio listeners of all ages.

Dennis appears comfortable on the radio, but his first loves are music and humor. His past is rich, filled with opportunities to emcee and sing all over the East Coast. In addition, he has traveled and performed with various local-formed groups, such as Southern Joy, Four of a Kind, and The Representatives.

Dennis gladly assists his youngest grandchild, Ella Hennessee, with the vocals for a Sunday morning music special. Dennis and Nellie Faye have been blessed with four grandchildren, ages 13-22.

"It's in my heart," says Dennis when asked why he sings Gospel music. "A Gospel song is a testimony. A hymn talks about the attributes of God and it glorifies God. Gospel music is man's response to God and His plan of salvation."

As for the comedic side of his persona, Dennis readily admits, "I was always a cut-up." Those words still ring true today!

Dennis met his future wife, Nellie Faye, "a true Southern girl," while attending Southern Pilgrim College in Kernersville, NC. They reside in Easley, SC, and have raised three daughters: Vangie, Sondra and Christy. Dennis is a veteran of the US Army and retired from Southern Bell in 1997.

Dennis and Nellie Faye celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on January 1, 2017. Congratulations!

"It all came together," says Dennis. "The music ministry has always been what I felt was my calling."

The LifeFM is thankful for Dennis and his desire to share that passion with all of us!
