Previewing Blog Submissions

To preview blog submissions perform the following steps:

1. Inside of the blog window select the Blog Details pane and click on the expand/collapse button.

2. After clicking on the expand/collapse arrow a drop-down submission list with participant’s names will appear.

3. Click on the participants name to view the blog submission for each participant. (Notice: for each participant name that is selected a blog submission will appear.)

4. If the blog includes a rubric click on the rubric title to apply grading criteria.
