

#ResusRAP

Are you :

- an investigator in the early stages of your career?
 - a graduate student working on a resuscitation science-related project?
 - a health professional interested in resuscitation research and best practice?
- looking for collegial and constructive feedback on your research/project/thesis/study?
 - interested in discussing cutting edge literature with like-minded people?
 - keen to access new projects or expertise/mentorship?

#ResusRAP might be just up your alley!

The CanROC Trainee and Career Development Committee is hosting a series of quarterly online forums to enhance mentorship, create links and opportunities for collaboration, networking and capacity building, and to discuss cutting-edge research.

JOIN US FOR #ResusRAP FROM ACROSS CANADA (OR BEYOND) ON NOVEMBER 18, 2019 from 1pm-2pm (EST)

RESEARCH PROJECT DISCUSSION: “A multi-method study on the Lay Responder’s Experience of responding to an OHCA”

JOURNAL ARTICLE DISCUSSION: <https://www.ahajournals.org/doi/10.1161/CIRCOUTCOMES.118.004702>

ZOOM LINK: <https://zoom.us/j/503145240>

RSVP

For more info, visit us: canroc.org /information-for-researchers

Follow us: @CanROCRsearch