PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

The Parshah in a Nutshell

SHEMOT

Exodus 1:1-6:1

The children of Israel multiply in Egypt. Threatened by their growing numbers, Pharaoh enslaves them and orders the Hebrew midwives, Shifrah and Puah, to kill all male babies at birth. When they do not comply, he commands his people to cast the Hebrew babies into the Nile.

A child is born to Yocheved, the daughter of Levi, and her husband, Amram, and placed in a basket on the river, while the baby's sister, Miriam, stands watch from afar. Pharaoh's daughter discovers the boy, raises him as her son, and names him Moses.

As a young man, Moses leaves the palace and discovers the hardship of his brethren. He sees an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, and kills the Egyptian. The next day he sees two Jews fighting; when he admonishes them, they reveal his deed of the previous day, and Moses is forced to flee to Midian. There he rescues Jethro's daughters, marries one of them (Tziporah), and becomes a shepherd of his father-in-law's flocks.

G-d appears to Moses in a burning bush at the foot of Mount Sinai, and instructs him to go to Pharaoh and demand: "Let My people go, so that they may serve Me." Moses' brother, Aaron, is appointed to serve as his spokesman. In Egypt, Moses and Aaron assemble the elders of Israel to tell them that the time of their redemption has come. The people believe; but Pharaoh refuses to let them go, and even intensifies the suffering of Israel.

Moses returns to G-d to protest: "Why have You done evil to this people?" G-d promises that the redemption is close at hand.

MEMORY LANE # 48 (EDITED)
FROM THE JUNE 1961 BULLETIN OF THE YOUNG ISRAEL OF LAVAL
INTERESTING NOTES FROM JUNE 1961

Our new Shul will be finished early in August and we expect to move into it shortly after and the Dedication Weekend has been fixed for October 6-8t. Many important people will be invited for the occasion including The Prime Minister, The Mayor and Deputy, Federal Dignatories, and the American Secretary of Labour Mr. Goldberg.

-----

The "United Talmud Torahs" will be starting classes in our new Shul building in September 1961. We are hopeful that our relationship will be a pleasant and profitable one to both sides.

-----

We still have to finish the kitchen and the upper floor of the new Shul. New members and all contributors are welcome. We could use, and would gladly accept cash and/or material so that we can meet our goals.

-----

A donation of $5.00 has been received by our Sisterhood in memory of the late Moishe Lewis donated by his son Issie Lewis. Moishe, who passed away on May 10, 1961 was the Parnass for over 20 years. He was one of their representatives at our Torah Presentation.
