CORONAVIRUS - COVID-19

Dear Members,

This morning, to put it in plain English, was a joyous occasion. Twenty men and 6 women from both shuls attended our first Shabbat Minyan in over four months. Yashir Koach to Rabbi Banon and Yossi Aberman for a beautiful service. Yossi, our Hazzan Sheni, in this new age of Covid-19, did quadruple duty, reading a double Torah portion this week as well the Haftarah, did Hagbah, Glilah, took out and put back the Torah, all to conform with the rules and regulations to avoid spreading germs to various surfaces. Those who came for the first time, were enthralled in seeing our new stage with its stained glass windows, and indeed the entire shul set up. Everyone felt comfortable and safe, and we look forward to increased attendance in the future.

The Rabbi and Presidents Issie Baum, and Mike Andradi in their various welcomes to all congregants, praised all the people involved who worked so hard to put this all together - Dave Green, Fred Rudy, Mike Andradi, Sam Abramovitch, Rabbi Banon, Lewis Fogel, Gloria Kadanoff, Issie Baum, and apologies to anyone left out. This includes the Zoom services, lessons, Minyans and everything else connected with our return to what we believe will now be Minyans on a regular basis. May we all be blessed with good health, and the ability to carry on.

Have a great week!

Issie Baum

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

DEVARIM

Deuteronomy 1:1-3:22

On the first of Shevat (thirty-seven days before his passing), Moses begins his repetition of the Torah to the assembled children of Israel, reviewing the events that occurred and the laws that were given in the course of their forty-year journey from Egypt to Sinai to the Promised Land, rebuking the people for their failings and iniquities, and enjoining them to keep the Torah and observe its commandments in the land that G-d is giving them as an eternal heritage, into which they shall cross after his death.

Moses recalls his appointment of judges and magistrates to ease his burden of meting out justice to the people and teaching them the word of G-d; the journey from Sinai through the great and fearsome desert; the sending of the spies and the people's subsequent spurning of the Promised Land, so that G-d decreed that the entire generation of the Exodus would die out in the desert. "Also against me," says Moses, "was G-d angry for your sake, saying: You, too, shall not go in there."

Moses also recounts some more recent events: the refusal of the nations of Moab and Ammon to allow the Israelites to pass through their countries; the wars against the Emorite kings Sichon and Og, and the settlement of their lands by the tribes of Reuben and Gad and part of the tribe of Manasseh; and Moses' message to his successor, Joshua, who will take the people into the Land and lead them in the battles for its conquest: "Fear them not, for the L-rd your G-d, He shall fight for you."
