CONDOLENCES: The Young Israel of Chomedey extends its sincere condolences to the family of Moshe Levinger, and the Leibinger and Budner families, on the passing of Moshe's sister-in-law Rose, devoted wife to Shaia Leibinger for sixty-six years and members of the YIC since 1963, basically at its inception. Rose passed away on Tuesday, December 8, a devoted mother and mother-in-law of Sheila and Alan Weiner, Ruth and Uzy Hazanovitz, David and Andrea Leibinger. Wonderful and loving Bubby to her seven grandchildren, Dani'el, Oren, Maayan, Shannon, Noa, Leanne and Evan. A private graveside service will be held on Sunday, December 13, 2020. Contributions in Rose's memory may be made to the Donald Berman Jewish Hospital of Hope Eldercare Foundation

"MAY THE FAMILY KNOW NO FURTHER SORROWS"

YASHER KOACH: YASHER KOACH to all the generous donors who donated to the GENERATIONS FUND, and which the shul matched. They included: Susan and Eugen Erdelyi, Natalie Bercovici, Len Dworkin, Issie and Zila Baum, Seymour Forman, Rabbi Banon, Danny Pascal, Ralph Levine, Roza Chowet, Larry Shadowitz, and some anonymous donors for a total of $822. This was doubled by the shul, and together with our original commitment of 150 times Chai - $2700, we were able to raise a grand total of $4,444 for the Generations Fund. A YASHER KOACH to all who participated. Adrian called on Thursday to say that our donation helped feed 1100 kids, so if that doesn't make you feel good on Hanukkah, then we need another miracle!

MINYANS: This week, being Hanukkah, we have a Minyan every morning at 7 AM (except Sunday 9 AM). We also have Yahrzeits on Tuesday and Wednesday, so we will try to arrange Minyans also for the previous evening of the Yahrzeit. Any changes to the schedule will see special emails sent advising of such changes.

REFUAH SHLEMA: A REFUAH SHLEMA to all who are ill, and/or recovering from some illness, in our community and elsewhere.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

Miketz

Genesis 41:1-44:17

Joseph's imprisonment finally ends when Pharaoh dreams of seven fat cows that are swallowed up by seven lean cows, and of seven fat ears of grain swallowed by seven lean ears. Joseph interprets the dreams to mean that seven years of plenty will be followed by seven years of hunger, and advises Pharaoh to store grain during the plentiful years. Pharaoh appoints Joseph governor of Egypt. Joseph marries Asenath, daughter of Potiphar, and they have two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

Famine spreads throughout the region, and food can be obtained only in Egypt. Ten of Joseph's brothers come to Egypt to purchase grain; the youngest, Benjamin, stays home, for Jacob fears for his safety. Joseph recognizes his brothers, but they do not recognize him; he accuses them of being spies, insists that they bring Benjamin to prove that they are who they say they are, and imprisons Simeon as a hostage. Later, they discover that the money they paid for their provisions has been mysteriously returned to them.

Jacob agrees to send Benjamin only after Judah assumes personal and eternal responsibility for him. This time Joseph receives them kindly, releases Simeon, and invites them to an eventful dinner at his home. But then he plants his silver goblet, purportedly imbued with magic powers, in Benjamin's sack. When the brothers set out for home the next morning, they are pursued, searched, and arrested when the goblet is discovered. Joseph offers to set them free and retain only Benjamin as his slave.

PASSOVER 1993 EDITION

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT ERIC SAFRAN:

This being my first term as President of the Shul, I am looking forward to carrying on the good work of Dave Greenstein. Now that Rabbi Spiro has retired, we are presently interviewing candidates for his replacement, and expect to be hiring a new Rabbi in the not too distant future so that we can carry on as before.

We are presently organizing our next Spring Bazaar which will be held on May 15 and 16 and we urgently require merchandise as well as many volunteers to help us out. Also in the planning stages are for Bingo and Square Dancing in the upcoming months.

We hope to see our members becoming more active in trying to recruit new members, taking a more active role within the everyday workings of the Shul, and taking more advantage of our beautiful facilities for their simchas.

BUILDING REPORT FROM THE HOUSE AND BUILDING CHAIRMAN BERNIE PEROFF:

We can really take pride in the "new look" of our Synagogue! Look around, it's clean, bright, fresh, and modern! Two new efficient state of the art fuel furnaces have been installed, the roofs were redone, and a major clean-up took place, with obvious results! Our complete electrical, fire, and safety standards were completely updated. In progress right now is the repair and calibration of our pneumatic control systems for the heating and air conditioning and a complete re-painting project is in the works for this spring and summer!

Bernie Peroff

BAZAAR NEWS FROM THE BAZAAR CHAIRMAN ARCHIE ROSEN

I'm very pleased to be able to report that our annual bazaar was a great success! This event could not have taken place without the untiring efforts of our many volunteers. Thanks to all those who helped by soliciting merchandise and delivering it to our Shul. Our special thanks to the Sisterhood – the bazaar could not have been the success it was without their usual hard work and devotion. Our next bazaar is May 15th and 16th.

Archie Rosen

WE REGRET ANY ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

(Yashir Koach to Fred Rudy for providing us all with these memorable historical moments, which some of us may still remember!
