Council Committee Reports and Comments

Councilman Strauch – Public Works

Councilman Strauch advised that the Public Works Committee met with Engineering yesterday to finalize the list of streets to be paved. He noted that with the help of Mike Vreeland, Melissa Daly, and Mayor White, each year the streets continue to be paved while staying within the capital budget. As Councilwoman Homan and Mayor White will not be available to attend the Public Works Committee meeting originally scheduled for February 1st, it was decided to reschedule this meeting for February 15th at 8 a.m.

Mayor’s Report

Mayor White thanked the Allendale Volunteer Ambulance Corps for inviting the governing body to their Annual Dinner and commented that she had a wonderful time. She wished them well on their 80th anniversary. She also attended the Bourbon Tasting that was held at the Fell House and remarked that it was an outstanding event. She expressed her opinion that the Fell House is one of Allendale’s treasures and this event is one of the many fundraising events held to help raise money for the upkeep of the property.

Councilwoman McSwiggan announced that there will be a wine tasting held there on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Mayor White reported that she attended several internal meetings, one of which was with PSE&G to discuss upcoming projects in town. She advised that she and Councilwoman McSwiggan attended a ribbon cutting for Learning Commons at Brookside School, commenting that they did an outstanding job. She noted that this area is no longer referred to as the Library and the number of books has been greatly reduced.

Councilwoman McSwiggan added that many of the books have been moved into the classrooms. She advised that this renovation was especially meaningful as the students were involved in the process.

Mayor White thanked CFO Mayer for the time spent in preparing for the adoption of tonight’s bond ordinance. She also thanked Municipal Clerk Dodd for preparing instruction sheets that help keep her on track during the meetings.
Staff Reports:

Ray Wiss, Municipal Attorney, advised that a lot of time has been spent on the contract in connection with the Bond Ordinance that was adopted this evening. He noted that although a few issues are currently being addressed, they are moving in an orderly fashion towards a successful closing. The closing for the 200 West Crescent Avenue site is scheduled for January 31st and Resolution #17-77 fulfills the Borough’s commitment by authorizing the contribution of $20,000 from the Borough’s Housing Trust, the release of which was approved by the court. He expressed his opinion that they are headed in a positive direction towards resolving the Northern Highlands lighting matter as he believes that a good compromise has been reached. In terms of the COAH litigation, he advised that an order to extend the Borough’s immunity until April 30th has been granted. He noted that he will be working with the Planner and Court Master to determine how to address the fair share number to which the Borough is obligated, noting that the plans for 200, 220 and 230 West Crescent will help in this respect.

Anne Dodd, Municipal Clerk, advised that there will be a meeting held at the County on February 23rd to review this year’s election process and timeline. She stated that she will be receiving the petitions to run for Council at that time. She further advised that she will be working with the Board of Elections to relocate Districts 2 and 4 as Guardian Angel Church will no longer be available as a polling place.

Ron Kistner, Administrative Officer/Director of Operations, advised that he has no report.

Alissa Mayer, CFO, advised that she has no report.

Public Comment on any issue:

No one came forward.
