

Have you ever left a conference or event wondering “That was good, but now what?”

We have invited our closing keynote speaker,
Natalie J. Sayer (Say - err), to help you leave the conference with a plan.

- She is the founder of the The Blair David Company, an Arizona based leadership and organizational improvement consultancy.
- Natalie is a long-time professional member of the National Speakers Association.
- She is known for her ability to enrich speaker’s content and performance.
- Natalie has traveled the world extensively, coaching leaders in English and Spanish, to improve their daily lives, leadership, and business results.
- And while she has 2 engineering degrees, Natalie has also been in over 20 stage and screen productions.
