REPUBLICAN PARTY OF BEXAR COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this organization shall be the Republican Party of Bexar County Executive Committee (herein known as the Executive Committee).

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose of the Executive Committee is the election of Republican candidates and the promotion of the principles of the Party. In addition, the Executive Committee shall manage the affairs of the Republican Party of Bexar County (herein known as the Party) as follows:

Section 1 – Objectives

- A. Promote and support the election of Republican candidates; and
- B. Cooperate with the Republican Party of Texas in carrying out programs that support Republican candidates and policies;

Section 2 – Statutory Duties

- A. Perform such duties specified in the Texas Election Code (TEC), including but not limited to:
  - 1. Supervising the overall conduct of the Primary election [TEC Chapter 172]
  - 2. Administering a biennial County Primary and managing the county Primary fund [TEC 173B]; and
  - 3. Managing the organization of Precinct Conventions. [174.021 – 174.023]
- B. Observe all state and federal election laws; and perform other such duties consistent with the objectives as stated in this Article.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1 – Voting Members

The voting Members of the Executive Committee shall be composed of the County Chair and Precinct Chairs of the respective election precincts in the county [TEC 171.022]. Each member shall be entitled to one vote if present and voting at Executive Committee meetings. [TEC 171.026]

Section 2 - Eligibility

To be eligible to be a candidate for or to serve as Precinct Chair or County Chair, a person shall be a qualified voter residing within the bounds of the entity represented, not be a candidate for or elected to federal, state, or county public office, and be affiliated as a Republican in even-numbered years. [TEC 161.005; 171.023; 162.001(a)(3) and 162.001(b)]

Section 3 – Term of Office

Each Executive Committee member serves for a term of up to two (2) years beginning the 20th day after Runoff Primary Election Day. [TEC 171.022]

Section 4 – Vacancy of a Precinct

- A. Between primary elections, the Executive Committee may fill vacant precincts where a Precinct Chair was not elected or a Precinct Chair cannot serve a full two-year term of office.
- B. Reasons that cause a precinct to become vacant by a current Precinct Chair include, but are not limited to:
  - 1. Resigning in writing to the Secretary or the Secretary's designee;
  - 2. Moving out of the precinct, preferably with written notice;
  - 3. Losing voting rights;
  - 4. Becoming a public office holder or candidate for public office; or
  - 5. Death.
- C. Candidates to fill vacancies for Precinct Chair shall submit subscribed forms in writing to the Secretary or the Secretary's designee no later than five (5) business days prior to the Executive Committee meeting. If they meet the statutory eligibility, they shall be considered for selection by the voting members of the Executive Committee.

Section 5 – Ex-Officio Members

- A. The following shall be non-voting ex-officio members of the Executive Committee and have floor privileges and the right to speak in debate at Executive Committee meetings but shall not have the right to make motions or to vote: Officers, appointed and elected, of the Executive Committee; members of the State Republican Executive Committee (SREC) [RPT Rule No. 42], and the immediate past Chair of the Republican Party of Bexar County who are not Precinct Chairs; and
- B. Voting and non-voting ex-officio members may chair or serve as voting members on any Standing or Special Committee, provided they are registered voters and reside in Bexar County.

Section 6 – Organizational Meeting

- A. The Executive Committee shall hold its organizational meeting within forty-five (45) days after the term of office begins for the County Chair and the Precinct Chairs;
- B. The County Chair is responsible for calling the meeting. However, if the County Chair does not call the meeting, then one-fourth (1/4) or fifty (50) of the Precinct Chairs, whichever is fewer, may, by written demand, call an organizational meeting;
- C. Notice of the organizational meeting shall be mailed first-class by USPS stamped with "Return Service Requested" to the last known address of the members of the Executive Committee at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the meeting and such notice shall state the time, date, purpose, and location of the meeting and the name(s) of the person(s) issuing the call;
- D. The agenda of the organizational meeting shall include, but not be limited to, the swearing in of the newly elected executive committee members, the approval of the budget, election or ratified appointment of additional officers and committees, and the adoption of Bylaws and/or Rules for the biennium;
- E. Failure to adopt bylaws and/or rules for the current biennium by a majority of those present and voting shall enact the previous biennium's bylaws and/or rules; and
- F. The proposed Bylaws and/or Rules shall be enclosed with the meeting call via USPS at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the meeting. [RPT Rule No. 8 e.]

Section 7 – Meetings of the Executive Committee

- A. The Executive Committee shall meet at least quarterly in addition to statutory meetings as required by the Texas Election Code;

- B. It shall meet at the call of the County Chair or upon written petition of at least twenty percent (20%) of the Executive Committee;
- C. All meetings of the Executive Committee and subcommittees may be called by electronic mail, and the call of all meetings shall be posted on the Party website;
- D. A member may receive meeting notices by US Postal Service mail if that member provides a written request to the Secretary to receive Executive Committee meeting notices by regular US Postal Service mail;
- E. Meeting notices shall be transmitted or postmarked at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting, except in the event of a stated emergency, in which case it shall be sent at least two (2) days beforehand;
- F. The meeting call notice shall state the time, date, purpose, and location of the meeting and the name(s) issuing the call, and include a proposed agenda and a draft copy of the minutes of the previous meeting; and
- G. No Executive Committee meeting shall be held during the week of the biennial State Convention or the quadrennial National Convention. [RPT Rule No. 8 f.]

Section 8 – Voting

- A. All County Executive Committee meetings' votes shall be cast and counted in the manner prescribed by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, and the vote of each member shall have equal weight [RPT Rule No. 7 a.]; and
- B. Proxy voting is prohibited in all matters before the Republican Party of Bexar County, including, but not limited to, votes conducted by the Executive Committee, any Standing or Special Committees, and subcommittees. [TEC 171.026]

Section 9 – Open Meetings and Right to Testify

All meetings of the Executive Committee or its committees, subcommittees, or ad hoc committees shall be open to any voting or ex officio member of the executive committee, and they shall have the right to appear before any such committee, subcommittee, or ad hoc committee and make recommendations for the committee's consideration or testify concerning any item under purview of the committee and to record or livestream the proceedings of any meeting not held in executive session with electronic devices. Any committee may adopt reasonable rules including time limits for such presentations and may establish a reasonable limit of time for these presentations. This Rule does not preclude the committee from going into executive session; however, such executive session(s) shall be open to any member of the executive committee, including ex-officio members. [RPT Rule No. 8 g.]

Section 10 – Executive Committee Quorum

- A. One-fourth (1/4) of the membership constitutes a quorum for conduct of non-statutory business and the filling of vacancies of Precinct Chairs at Executive Committee meetings [RPT Rule No. 8 i., Rule No. 9, and TEC 171.024]. If the quorum provided above is not present at any executive committee meeting, then only statutory business (called for by the TEC) may be transacted at a meeting; and
- B. The quorum for conduct of statutory business shall be those present [RPT Rule No. 9 b.], except to fill the vacancy of county chair [TEC 171.025] or a nominee for public office [TEC Chapters 145 or 202].

Section 11 – Responsibilities of Executive Committee Members

The Executive Committee Members shall assist Republican Party candidates and have general responsibility for all Party activities, functions, and campaigns within their respective precincts. It is the duty of each Precinct Chair to attend Executive Committee meetings and to serve as liaison between the Republican Party of Bexar County and voters within the precinct he or she represents and to promote the growth of the Republican Party of Texas within the county.

Section 12 – Endorsements and Support

The Executive Committee, as a body, shall not endorse one Republican over another in any contested race. All resources of the Republican Party of Bexar County shall be made equally available to all candidates in the Republican primary.

ARTICLE IV

The county Party Headquarters shall be a public space accessible during normal business hours and shall serve as a filing and storage center for permanent and temporary records of the Party.

Section 2

Any Executive Committee member shall have the right to inspect and request copies of Party records in the presence of an officer or appointed staff. The request shall be made in writing at least 24 hours in advance and the inspection shall be made by appointment. Copies may incur a charge.

ARTICLE IX
Parliamentary Authority

The Party shall be governed by the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of Texas, Federal and State Statutes, including, but not limited to, the Texas Election Code and Administration Code; the General Rules of the Republican Party of Texas, these Bylaws, any Rules adopted by this Executive Committee, and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

ARTICLE X
Amendment of Bylaws

With a quorum present, these Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Executive Committee present and voting at any meeting of the Executive Committee as long as the text of intended amendments or deletions has been submitted in writing to the Secretary twenty-one (21) days prior to the next meeting. The proposed text shall be included in the notice of the meeting.
