Acquisition forges brand presence in the event space together with Greenwich Concours and California Mille

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., March 17, 2021 – To advance its mission of preserving, protecting and expanding top quality events and experiences for automotive enthusiasts, Hagerty today announced its acquisition of and partnership with the Concours d'Elegance of America in Detroit. The move follows Hagerty's recent acquisitions of other top automotive events, including the Greenwich Concours d'Elegance and the California Mille.

"The Concours d'Elegance of America is a premiere event in the home of American car culture, and we couldn't be more honored to have the opportunity to help make it even better," said McKeel Hagerty, CEO of Hagerty.

"Sometimes change can be serendipitous," said Larry Moss, board chairman of the Concours d'Elegance of America. "In this case, we have found the perfect caretaker for our cherished event, which will allow the Concours and its partners to focus on a common goal – producing the richest automotive experience while serving the needs of our community."

Hagerty will work in tandem with the existing operational team to raise the profile of the Concours annual event. For continuity, Tara Noftz will continue as director while Moss will remain as board chairman. The event's philanthropic mission will remain focused on automotive education and supporting local charities.

The 42nd annual Concours d'Elegance of America takes place July 23-25, 2021. The event originated 41 years ago at Meadow Brook Hall, the historic, Detroit-area home of Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of automotive pioneer John Dodge. In 2011, the event moved to the beautiful grounds of the Inn at St. John's in Plymouth, Michigan. The 2021 field will boast more than 300 significant classic and historically-relevant vehicles ranging from the Gas Light era and Modern Collectables to Super Cars.

Hagerty hosts, partners with, or participates in more than 2,000 car events annually. The company has a major presence at the nation's largest events in Pebble Beach, California, and Amelia Island, Florida, as well as the annual auction week in Scottsdale, Arizona. Hagerty's Festival of the Unexceptional, a light-hearted, concours-style event is an annual highlight in the United Kingdom.
