

Optional Equipment

- Adventure travel insurance policy
- Cow elk license
- Driver's license
- Cash or traveler checks
- Credit cards
- Travel gun case keys
- Airline tickets and vehicle rental confirmations
- Car registration
- Meat trailer
- Extra car key
- Prescription medicines
- (20) Ibuprofen
- Lubricated eye drops for "dry eye"
- Diabetic supplies
- Cold soar medication
- Clear safety glasses for riding horses
- Extra eye glasses
- Extra contacts
- Chapstick
- Sunscreen
- Excellent quality high dollar binoculars
- Bino lens cover
- Thick coat hangers for your cabin hearing aid batteries
- (2) small flashlights
- Extra flashlight batteries
- AAA and AA batteries
- 123 CPAP machine
- CPAP 15' extension cord
- Scope set in steel mounts not aluminum – exception is night force lightweight aluminum rings
- AAA auto info
- Removable scope covers
- Rifle sling
- Your favorite sleeping pillow
- Spotting scope is not required
- Shooting sticks
- Bipods do not fit in our scabbards
- 56mm scopes do not fit in our scabbards
- Benadryl for insect bite
- (2) Hankies for lens wiping
- Lens cleaning solution to leave in your cabin and use every night on binos and scopes
- (1) Extra rifle and ammo for your group in case of a malfunction – bring one everyone will be comfortable shooting.
- Beer, wine, alcohol to your liking and mixers. Bring ice if you like ice in your cocktails, ice is only available in town of augusta.
- Extra warm hunting pack boots that fit snug and are good for hiking. Brands we like are arctic pro or arctic sport by muck.
- Easy on off light weight warm footwear to wear at the guest ranch and your cabin
- Quality winter hunting coat – with wind stopper made of quiet water-proof material
- Very small folding lightweight mirror
- Insulated pants – with wind stopper made of quiet water proof material
- Long soft thin neck scharf – keeps wind off your neck
- Warm winter hat with earflaps that can be either down or up depending on what the weather is doing at the moment.
- Two pairs of warm gloves or mittens that are quiet and waterproof.
- * Note – if you take a 16-penny nail and scrape it on any of your outer garments and it makes a noise you might not want to bring then. Big game animals have a keen sense of hearing and noise, noisy outer clothing can spook your target and ruin your hunt.
- Charcoal hand warmers (12) per hunter
- Small insulated sitting pad – we may be sitting in snow at times.
- (2) Wool or fleece long sleeve shirts
- Underwear – tops and bottoms
- Socks
- Electric boot dryer, nice option if your feet sweat.
- Compass or gps – with montana private and national forest maps installed when or if you hunt on your own.
- Hunting knife, we like the outdoor edge razor knife with extra blades – we like to travel light!
- Cell phone and charger
- Camera or gopro
- 100' outdoor extension cord for your vehicle if the temperature drops.
- Snow broom
- Fuel conditioner
- (2) Tire chains and tighter, the weather can change fast in montana
- Bore snake and gun cleaning kit for your rifle
- Electrical tape
- Each hunter should bring a few of these: large yard bags, gallon, quart, sandwich, snack zip locks
- Paracord, always handy.
- Personal bath towels and wash cloth
- There is no laundry for hunting guests at Ford Creek Guest Ranch, so bring plenty of fresh clothes for your stay.