CONGREGATIONAL HYMN 1

My faith looks up to Thee,

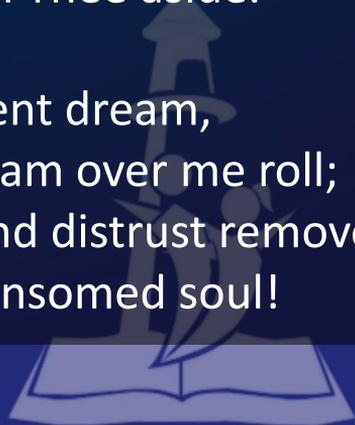

Ray Palmer (1830)

My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine!
Now hear me while I pray, take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day be wholly Thine!

May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart, my zeal inspire!
As Thou hast died for me, O may my love to Thee,
Pure warm, and changeless be, a living fire!

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread, be Thou my Guide;
Bid darkness turn to day, wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray from Thee aside.

When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold sullen stream over me roll;
Blest Savior, then in love, fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above, a ransomed soul!

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN 2

“Ride On, Ride On, in Majesty”

by Henry H. Milman, 1791-1868

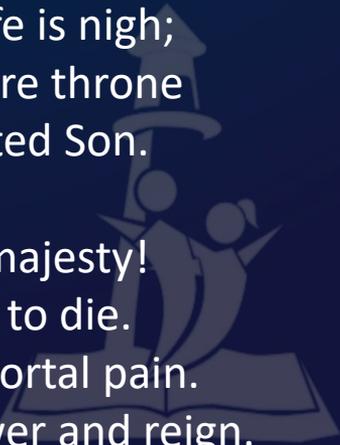

1. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
Hark! all the tribes hosanna cry.
O Savior meek, pursue Thy road,
With palms and scattered garments strowed.

2. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die.
O Christ, Thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquered sin.

3. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
The angel armies of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the approaching Sacrifice.

4. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;
The Father on His sapphire throne
Expects His own anointed Son.

5. Ride on, ride on, in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die.
Bow Thy meek head to mortal pain.
Then take, O Christ, Thy power and reign.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN 3

And Can It Be That I Should Gain Charles Wesley (1738)

1 And can it be that I should gain
An int'rest in the Savior's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou, my God, should die for me?

Refrain:

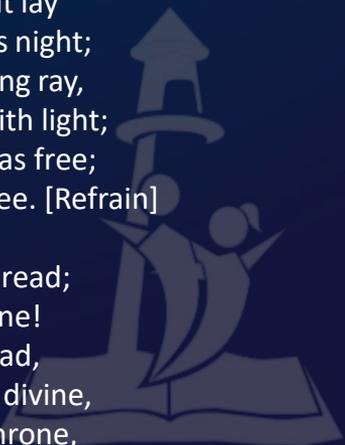

Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou, my God, should die for me!

2 'Tis mystery all! Th'Immortal dies!
Who can explore His strange design?
In vain the firstborn seraph tries
To sound the depths of love divine!
'Tis mercy all! let earth adore,
Let angel minds inquire no more. [Refrain]

3 He left His Father's throne above,
So free, so infinite His grace;
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race;
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
For, O my God, it found out me. [Refrain]

4 Long my imprisoned spirit lay
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quick'ning ray,
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free;
I rose, went forth and followed Thee. [Refrain]

5 No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in Him is mine!
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach th'eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ my own. [Refrain]

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. (1 Cor. 3:9 KJV)

You and I are God's building; a home and place of His dwelling. Paul in his letter to the Corinthian Church and by that letter, referencing everyone (including you and I) who are Saints and the Redeemed said, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16 KJV) Paul was in the reference Scripture highlighting an important notice and information we must bear and realize; the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. This is a great and blessed notice about which we shall do well to assume and realize. The reality of this truth will not leave us mere or ordinary.

Ye are God's Building. A Building is a structure or edifice designed and developed to be occupied. Notice a Building is both designed and developed to be occupied. This is both urgent and cogent for our contemplation and application. We must apply ourselves to this grand plan. God designed you and I to be His dwelling and we must therefore be so developed that God may have a dwelling in us. God said, "Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore."

About the nature of God's dwelling, the Bible says, "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; (Act 17:25 KJV). We must therefore not construe God's Building as to mean a Building of Brick and mortal but rather prepare Him a place in our hearts and Being for He said, "My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways". (Proverbs 23:26 KJV) This is the key and keen place of God's dwelling.

He desires to dwell within you and I. The Bible further says, "...God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people" (2 Cor. 6:16 KJV). We must gain this notice and thereby have God in our midst. Praise the Lord.

The blessedness and glory of God dwelling in our lives is described in the content of God's city recorded in the Bible book of Revelation. In that Book, the City of God was described and the lifestyle of people amid whom God lives. About that City the Bible says, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (Rev. 21:3-4 KJV)

When God lives within us, in the City of His dwelling, all tears, stagnation (death), sorrow, crying, pain...are passed away. We shall rather have righteousness, peace and joy that accompany the City of God. We shall lie down and not be afraid and our sleep shall be sweet.

Bible says, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord". (Col. 3:16 KJV). God dwells in us when His Words dwell in us by His Spirit. Make Him room.

WEEKLY REVIEW

EMMANUEL

‘God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day.’ Ps 46:5

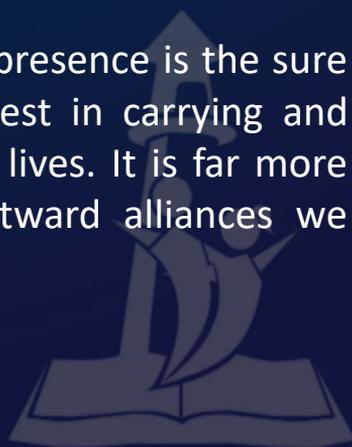

It is not part of God’s plan for us to be fearful. A heart that fears does not hear God. We must never judge circumstances by how bad its outcome may appear or be motivated by the fear of it. We must be open to see every situation through the eyes of God.

Our willingness to make space for Him in our daily lives is needed in order for us to experience peace and have faith against threatening or fearful situations. The presence of God on our inside is the cure for every threat.

We must practice dwelling in His presence where the waters are still. Should the surrounding tides change, the presence of God will remain and grants us strength and peace, providing a way of escape through it.

‘Surely we will be assailed but His presence is the sure sign for our victory. We must invest in carrying and maintaining God’s presence in our lives. It is far more necessary than any untoward outward alliances we may garner.’
