CONGREGATIONAL HYMN 1

To God Be the Glory, Great things He Hath done

Text: Fanny J. Crosby

Music: William H. Doane

To God be the glory, great things he hath done!
So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
and opened the lifegate that all may go in.

Refrain:

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the earth hear his voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the people rejoice!

O come to the Father thru Jesus the Son,
and give him the glory, great things he hath done!

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
to every believer the promise of God;
the vilest offender who truly believes,
that moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

(Refrain)

Great things he hath taught us, great things he hath done,
and great our rejoicing thru Jesus the Son;
but purer, and higher, and greater will be our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see.

(Refrain)

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN 2

Now Thank We All Our God Martin Rinkart (1586-1649)

Now thank we all our God,
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms
hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
through all our life be near us,
with ever-joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
the Father now be given,
the Son, and Holy Ghost,
supreme in highest heaven,
the one eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

On this mountain [Zion] the Lord of hosts will prepare a lavish banquet for all peoples [to welcome His reign on earth], A banquet of aged wines—choice pieces [flavored] with marrow, Of refined, aged wines. (Isaiah 25:6 AMP)

Emolument: its content and context are a big part of engagement and employment contracts. It details the compensation including benefits for holding an office or rendering a service. It is the laconic inducement to attract and retain prized talents. It offers a boisterous opportunity to attract “suitors” to participate or derive good. It is natural therefore for prospecting applicants to search, compare, verify emolument of varied and multiplied opportunities before deciding. Aptly, latent benefits are drivers in making decision to participate.

This notion typifies the desire and decision to change or pursue citizenship naturalization in our contemporary World. Wealthy Nations with broad and rich emolument for citizens are plagued with umpteen applications for naturalization, visitation or sheer tourism of applicants desirous or enticed by the emoluments so graciously offered and provided. Poor Nations are on the other hand emptied of prized, noble, intelligent and skillful talents as they could not entice or retain them because of poor and lacking emoluments. Everyone seeks a strong environment that can provide and support their silent aspirations and desires for good and prosperous life – it is a natural trend. The evaluation, selection and retention of a good employment or citizenship membership is however dependent on some critical factors including the scope and depth of information available to the applicant, his/her research skill and the needed competence to make the right and optimal decision. The combination of these factors will enable the applicant to compete, comply and complete the requirement for engagement and admission. This concept aptly describes the basis for Man’s aspiration (or lack of it) for the membership or “naturalization” of the Kingdom of Heaven.

The information available about the Kingdom, the research skill of eligible candidates and Man’s respective competence to make the right and optimal decision are major drivers in the assumption of the citizenship of Heaven.

About the Kingdom of Heaven, the Bible; the rich source of information about God’s Kingdom says, “On this mountain [Zion] the Lord of hosts will prepare a lavish banquet for all peoples [to welcome His reign on earth], A banquet of aged wines—choice pieces [flavored] with marrow, Of refined, aged wines. And on this mountain, He will destroy the covering that is [cast] over all peoples, And the veil [of death] that is woven and spread over all the nations. He will swallow up death [and abolish it] for all time. And the Lord God will wipe away tears from all faces, And He will take away the disgrace of His people from all the earth; For the Lord has spoken. It will be said in that day, “Indeed, this is our God for whom we have waited that He would save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; Let us shout for joy and rejoice in His salvation.” (Isaiah 25:6-11 AMP) Beloved, as Kingdom citizens, we must avail the rich emoluments of the Kingdom so we may retain our citizenship and avail others who may otherwise not be privy to the information about the Kingdom. Jesus said, “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. (Matt. 28:19-20 NIV)

WEEKLY REVIEW

Our Citizenship II

But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ (Phil. 3:20 NIV).

As Christians our affairs are directed by heaven. God delights in our being well cared for at all times and has extended the resources of heaven towards us. It is our heavenly citizenship that gives us the authority to access these resources and power made available to us through Christ. He created all things and is able to sustain them John 1:1-5.

Features of Christ our Ruler

- 1) He has the power to control all things Heb 1:3
- 2) He is the preeminent One Col. 1:18-19
- 3) He has the power to transform (change/alter) any outcome Phil3:21

We must be conscious and walk boldly with this confidence knowing that everything that concerns us is ordered by Heaven and the gates of hell shall not prevail against us Matt 16:18.

... “our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ”; note the blessing of Heaven’s citizenship is to “await a Savior from there”.

We look to Heaven, from whence we derive our citizenship to send us help from dire and awful situation; we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ who has Power which enables Him even to subject everything to Himself (Phil. 3:20-21). We have a Savior who has power to direct, control or influence all things...in our favor. Praise the Lord!”
