

Nassau County Camera Club Board Meeting Minutes for Monday, April 1, 2019

Board Members in attendance: Dave Curtin, Helen Albano, Jane Allegretti, Julie Allegretti, Valerie Interligi, Ken Thalheimer and Steven Kessler.

Absent: Joe Senzatimore

Treasurer Report: Helen – reviewed Treasurer’s Report dated 3/31/2019 – balance of $5,702.22 after the month’s expenses. After final judging fees, guest presenters end of year plaques, etc. Helen anticipates finishing the year with a slightly higher balance than initial September estimates.

The Programs / Workshops Report: Dave and Steven reported – Tonight will be a presentation by Scott Dere. All club dates now filled for the rest of this club year – for specifics please refer to calendar on club’s website.

Judges Chair: Joe – was absent but all judges set for remainder of competitions.

Competition Report: Next competition to be held on April 17th and all images are due to Ken by April 10th. Ken and board request members try to get images to Ken as early as possible- a number of members are continuing to wait till then very last hour to send to Ken making getting the images ready for competition much more difficult.

Membership Report: Steven – Membership stands at 43 and we continue to get some new applications for membership.

Webmaster Report: Julie/Jane – Website, Facebook, Instagram pages all up to date and functioning well. We are exploring a club membership in the PSA (the Photographic Society of America).

Selection Report: The club’s selections for the Glennies - Memorial Nature Salon Competition were submitted - final judging to be made in Massachusetts on April 6th.

Old Business: Last Board Meeting Minutes- reviewed and accepted.

The Nassau County District Attorney's Office Annual Report was completed and published and included a number of images submitted by our members. Congratulations to all of you!

New Business:

Joe will be presenting our slate of Board Officers for the upcoming 2019-2020 club year at an upcoming meeting.

The PFLI Spring Spectacular is scheduled for April 14, 2019. Mike DiRenzo has agreed to continue to chair this event this year and Nikon (instead of Canon) and National Parks At Night (NPAN) will be the main speakers. Tickets can be purchased on line (see Facebook page for information or for an additional $5.00 at the door.

PFLI is working on a new workshop with National Parks At Night that might be held out at Montauk- stay tuned for updates.

Jane and Julie have organized our annual End of The Year Party and it scheduled for June 26th and we are again at Palmers American Grille at 223 Hempstead Turnpike in Farmingdale. Cost remains the same as last year - $45.00/person and checks can be made out to The Nassau County Camera Club and given to a board member at a meeting. Membership help with donations and club/event sponsors would be appreciated.

Dave and Julie continue to research the purchase a new projector and laptop for the club. The goal is to purchase these items during the summer and have ready for the 2019-2020 club year.

Remember to check the NCCC calendar and Facebook page for ongoing updates.

Next Board Meeting: this was the last Board Meeting for the current club year.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:20 pm.

Submitted by Steven Kessler, Secretary