

Gary B. Wilks, MD

Dr. Wilks received his medical degree from the State University of New York at Syracuse in 1992, served his Internship and Residency in Family Medicine at the University of Connecticut, and his Geriatric Fellowship at the University of Cincinnati in Ohio. He is board certified in family medicine and is also certified in geriatrics and in palliative care, and is a certified medical director in long-term care.

From 1999 to 2006, Dr. Wilks practiced at the Hebrew Home of Greater Washington in Rockville Maryland. In 2006 he became the medical director for hospice and palliative care for Evercare, serving seniors at home and in long-term care facilities in the Washington metropolitan area. In 2008, he joined Premier Senior Care, devoted to all aspects of geriatric medical care.

Dr. Wilks has been featured in Bethesda Magazine's "Best of Bethesda" issues and has been named multiple times in the Washingtonian Magazine's Top Doctors Issue