Virginia Prodan graduated from Bucharest Law School in Romania with a Juris Doctor (JD) degree and from S.M.U. Law School in Dallas, TX with a Juris Doctor (JD) degree and a Master of Laws (LL.M International) degree.

Virginia literally faced her assassin and lived to tell about it. You will be inspired by her confidence and courage in the Lord and by her desire to share God's love with anyone, just as she shared it with the man who was hired to kill her.

She is passionate about speaking and mentoring others who want to stand up to their giants and create a courageous, purpose-filled, and abundant life.

As a young attorney under Nicolae Ceausescu's brutal Socialist regime, Virginia had spent her entire life searching for the truth. When she finally found it in the pages of the most forbidden book in all of Romania, Virginia accepted the divine call to defend fellow followers of Christ against unjust persecution in an otherwise ungodly land.

For this act of treason, she was kidnapped, beaten, tortured, placed under house arrest, and came within seconds of being executed under the orders of Ceausescu himself. How Virginia not only managed to defeat her enemies time and again, but also helped expose the appalling secret that would lead to the demise of Ceausescu's evil empire is one of the most extraordinary stories ever told.

Virginia Prodan's compelling story of courage in the face of intimidation and even death on behalf of others is a testament to her unwavering faith in a God who delivers.

Exiled from Romania since 1988, Virginia frequently shares her story as the keynote speaker in large public forums—including public and private schools and universities—and has been featured prominently in numerous media reports.

She was the focus of a full-length documentary and has been interviewed by Fox News, Heritage Foundation, BBC Radio, CBN, LifeWay – Chat with Priscilla, The NITE line, The Daily Signal, WFAA-TV Channel 8, Dallas Morning News, Point of View, Heritage Action for America, Glenn Beck, KCBI 90.9, Point of View, Family Life with Dr. Jim Dobson, and more.

Virginia is a sought-after international speaker, and has been the keynote speaker for large audiences and special events at the Family Research Council (Washington, DC), Christian Legal Fellowship (Vancouver, Canada), United States Air Force Academy, Family Talk Gathering with Dr. Dobson, Summit Ministries, Victims of Communism Foundation, Hobby Lobby, Georgetown University, and countless others.

Virginia has also published articles in the Christian Post, Christian Science Monitor, Focus on the Family – Citizen Magazine, Christianity Today, The Daily Signal, and American Thinker.
