JENNI GENIE

Jennifer Crossland is the founder of the Imagenie concept & her expertise is in developing peoples' creativity & designing intelligent systems for 21st century leaders. The focus is on releasing the power of imagination to envision goals that consciously serve the evolution of humanity.

As a Big Picture Visioneer & Ideas Conjurer, Jennifer has invented, lead & managed many innovative projects resulting in a greater focus of energy & enthusiasm all round. Imagenie consults on visual wholistic strategies that facilitate the cross-fertilization of ideas between teams & across sectors such as:

- Family, Community & Charity
- Schools, Education & Life Long Learning
- Business, Industry, Farming & Tourism
- Government & Economic Development

Have you ever wished to get a flying carpet perspective on your decisions & to better navigate your way through the maze of information & influences that increasingly bombard us all? Then Jennifer can offer you that vantage point. A space that enables you to observe & follow your own conscience & ultimately enjoy the freedom to make more empowered choices.

'I'm a Genie' guidance assists people to conceptually map their direction in both Life & Work. This commitment to Jennifer's own Great Lifework has evolved a unique specialist & generalist skill set & purpose. One that is ideally designed to envision your point, meaning the unique & united difference you are choosing to be & see in the world.

PICTURE THIS IN YOUR MINDS EYE

"One of Human-kind's most significant challenges is to TRUST our own natural guidance system. Best described as our inbuilt homing instinct. For when you can determine your POINT, then it's a darn sight easier to get your bearings & decide which direction to take next. This is a momentous time when Humans are destined to awaken to the knowledge that by acting on your calling, you serve the very evolution of humanity.
