

The First George and Laura Appell Award for the Conservation of Biodiversity in Maine's Mountains

Nomination Form

Deadline for Nominations August 1, 2020.

Email completed nomination form to Maine Mountain Collaborative Executive Director, Bryan Wentzell at bwentzell@mainemountaincollaborative.org

Leadership of MMC member organizations are not eligible.

Nominating Person (name, organization, address, phone, email):

Nominee Name (title or position):

Nominee pronouns (She/He/They):

Nominee address, phone, email:

Website, if any, associated with nominee or their organization:

Which field best fits the nominee's area of work in the Maine Mountains?
(Check all those that apply)

- Research
- Wildlife Habitat
- Land Conservation
- Leadership
- Philanthropy
- Climate Change
- Education
- Advocacy and Policy
- Communication

Please briefly summarize the work of the nominee for which they are being nominated. (100 words or 520 characters)

What are the core challenges related to biodiversity in the Maine mountain region that the nominee is seeking to address?
(200 words or 1,060 characters)

Please list one to three main accomplishments of the nominee especially as they relate to the award criteria. What strengths or talents do they embody that helps forward this work?
(250 words or 1,320 characters)