In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), information regarding a student’s financial aid, tuition, fee accounts and academic information cannot be released to or discussed with anyone other than the student unless the student provides NWTI with a completed Information Release (this form or previous editions of this form). The Information Release form allows the student to designate to whom NWTI can release student information.

This release will remain in effect until the student submits a written revocation to the NWTI Registrar or the Director of Student Services.
