

2020 RBC Emerging Artists Project at the Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts Program Information and Application

Note: The format and duration of the program may change as a result of the evolving COVID-19 situation in Alberta. Regardless of this, certification and honorariums will remain the same for all participants.

The program consists of approximately 5 hours per week working at the Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts with a collective of artists who face barriers (developmental disabilities, brain injury, etc.) as well as a number of panels/workshops with arts professionals that are geared to furthering participants' careers in the arts.

Participants must commit to the full program, May – August 2020 and agree to exhibit their artwork in the Nina's Stollery Gallery and City Centre Mall window display.

Late applications will not be considered.

To apply, please fill out the information on the following page and send to janice@thenina.ca along with:

- CV or resume (PDF or Word format)
- Contact information for two references
- 8-12 images of current work in a digital format
  - Images must be jpeg format, 72dpi or higher
  - Maximum image size 1024 x 768 pixels
  - Title each image in the following format:
01-LastName-FirstName-TitleOfWork,
02-Lastname-FirstName-TitleOfWork, etc.

RBC
Emerging Artists
Project

Name:

Email:

Phone:

School/University Name:

Program:

Expected or completed graduation date:

How did you hear about this program?

Please briefly introduce yourself:

Would you be available to apprentice in our studios one day a week (Thursdays or Fridays) from approximately 9:30-2:30 from May to August 2020?

Would you be prepared to contribute work to be exhibited (minimum 6 pieces) for the RBC Emerging Artists Exhibitions scheduled for August 2020?

Thank you for applying to the 2020 RBC Emerging Artists Project at the Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts!

If you have any questions regarding the application process, please email janice@thenina.ca