

THE HORNET'S NEST STEAKHOUSE

Welcome to the Hornet's Nest

The Hornet's Nest was originally named for the gathering place of locals and passers by that was annually invaded by you guessed it, a hive of hornets. First built in the mid 1800's, the tavern, hotel and dance hall was a favorite stop on the trip south from Chicago. As a stage coach station, many a colorful character stopped by to enjoy the local Earle hospitality.

After a fire in 1926 the present building was constructed by Oscar Sanders. He operated the tavern and added the dining room so that Mrs. Sanders could entertain her friends from Evansville. The community of Earle provides a place for many guests to venture north from town to enjoy a unique dining experience. Mr. Ungethiem hopes that you will relax and take a step back in time to enjoy some of the best dining in the area. Unwind in our casual atmosphere. We hope that you enjoy your visit and come back often.
