To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this recommendation letter for the services of J.J. Caulking & Waterproofing Corp. I have been using their services for the past 5 years and have been an extremely satisfied customer. We've used their services for projects in locations such as Baptist Hospital, and Doctor's Hospital in Miami, Florida.

They offer the most competitive rates, open availability and have always been excellent with their work quality. Their staff have excellent customer service and always deliver on their promise.

If you have any additional questions or clarifications regarding J.J. Caulking & Waterproofing Corp., please feel free to contact me through the contact details found below.

Sincerely,
