

Gallery Underground Member Artist Application FAQs

Who decides which applicants are chosen to become members of Gallery Underground?

Gallery Underground has a rotating panel of 3 anonymous jurors, all professional artists, who make decisions based on new applications for membership.

Who may apply to be a Gallery Underground Member Artist?

Any local artist may apply to become a Gallery Underground Member Artist, but because of Arlington Artists Alliance regulations, photography-based applications are currently not being reviewed.

If I am accepted as a Gallery Underground Member Artist, how soon do I get to start showing my work there?

Gallery Underground currently has a waitlist for Member Artists. It will likely be several months before a Member space in the Gallery opens up. All applicants are notified of their standing on the waitlist.

Do I have to be an Arlington Artists Alliance member to apply to be a Gallery Underground Member Artist?

No, you do not have to belong to Arlington Artists Alliance however Arlington Artists Alliance members are given priority on the wait list.

How is the waitlist organized?

All Applications that receive 3 YES-votes are placed on the Top waitlist in the chronological order in which they were received. Arlington Artist Alliance member's Applications that receive 3 YES-votes are given priority over non-AAA applicants who received 3 YES-votes. They are put ahead of the first non-Arlington Artists Alliance applications which received 3 YES-votes.

All Applications that receive 2 YES-votes are placed on the Secondary waitlist, in the chronological order in which they were received. Arlington Artist Alliance member's Applications that receive 2 YES-votes are given priority over non-AAA applicants who received 2 YES-votes. They are put ahead of the first non-Arlington Artists Alliance applications which received 2 YES-votes.

All Applications that receive two or three NO-votes will NOT be put on the waitlist.

All Applicants are notified of the number of votes they have received.

Who can I ask if I have further questions about this process?

For more information, email us at info@galleryunderground.org.
Or, call Gallery Underground: 571-483-0652