

Conference for Mercy Higher Education: Mission Officers – Best Practices

Title:

Mission Orientation

Summary:

New employees will attend a Mission Orientation conducted by the Vice President for Mission Integration. New employees will learn about Misericordia University's history, Catherine McAuley, the Religious Sisters of Mercy and their Critical Concerns, and the Conference for Mercy Higher Education and its role.

Goals:

The goal of the Mission Orientation is for new employees to learn and embrace the values of Misericordia University and its past.

Description:

As part of the new employee orientation, new employees attend an hour-long Mission Orientation conducted by the Vice President for Mission Integration. Employees receive a packet of resources and learn about Misericordia University's history, Catherine McAuley, the Religious Sisters of Mercy, and CMHE. Mission Orientations are held as needed and in small group settings.

Successes:

New employees embrace the values of Misericordia University, Catherine McAuley, the Religious Sisters of Mercy and CMHE.

Contact:

Jean Messaros, RSM
Misericordia University
stjean@misericordia.edu
570-674-6320