

Steps to Homeownership with Down Payment Assistance

Buying a home is a major life decision. Interested in applying for down payment assistance using one of Housing Trust Silicon Valley's programs?

The steps below will guide homebuyers to applying for down payment assistance and towards homeownership.

Step 1. Complete the Homeownership Assistance Online Intake Form. Housing Trust staff will contact you within 3 business days to begin the pre-qualification process. This is NOT an application; it is only for pre-qualifying and does not place you on any wait list.

Step 2. Review the email from our Homebuyer Education Specialist outlining your next steps to homeownership.

A Purchase-Ready buyer is defined as a homebuyer who:

- Has attended an 8-Hour Homebuyer Education class;
- Is income eligible including having the required income to manage the new housing payment for the home;
- Has the required down payment (minimum 3%) and closing costs

If you find you are just beginning in your journey to homeownership then follow the steps below:

Step 3. Attend the required HUD Certified 8-Hour Homebuyer Education Class through the designated agency. This class helps homebuyers understand the steps to purchasing a home.

- All borrowers (including non-borrowing spouse) are required to take this class.
- To register for the class, visit the Project Sentinel website at www.housing.org/first-time-homebuyer-education or call (408) 470-3730. Classes are currently available online. The online class is also available in Spanish. You can find details on how to take the class on their website or call (408) 470-3730.

Already attended the Homebuyer Education class and completed the online intake form?

- Attach the PDF copies of your Certificate of Completion and send it to homebuyer@housingtrustsv.org.
- Important note: Your Homebuyer Education certificates will expire two years from the issue date.

Step 4. Start the pre-approval process with an approved and participating lender. After you have completed Steps 1-3, we will send you a participating Lender List of approved lenders.

- Talk to a few lenders and determine which lender you will work with to start the pre-approval process.

Step 5. Once you receive the lender Pre-approval Letter, email it to homebuyer@housingtrustsv.org to set up a Pre-purchase Review appointment by phone with our Homebuyer Education Specialist.

Upon completion of your Pre-Purchase Review, you may be eligible to submit your eligibility application and required documents online with Housing Trust. You will be provided instructions on how and where to securely submit your eligibility application and required documents.

Congratulations on completing these five important steps toward your eligibility for down payment assistance and homeownership.

Housing Trust staff will review your eligibility application and documents. The process to determine program eligibility is approximately 14 business days depending on the completeness of the eligibility application package.

If Housing Trust determines that your household is eligible for the program, you will receive an Eligibility Determination letter (pre-approval) and now you are ready to shop for a home!
