

George R. Allin, Jr. Memorial Biography

Retired US Army Colonel George R. Allin, Jr. of Arlington died on November 25, 2017. Col. Allin was born in Washington, D.C. A 1942 graduate of West Point, Col. Allin served in five major campaigns, serving with the 35th Infantry Division in Europe during World War II; he served with the 8th US Army Artillery during the Korean War, and with the II Field Force (corps) Artillery in Vietnam in 1966-1967. In 1957 he married Mary Erwin Davis of Washington, D.C. There are six surviving children, twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. After retiring from the Army in 1968, George was employed by the Arlington Country, VA Public Schools for nearly 14 years as Director of Auxiliary Services, retiring in 1983.

George was an active member and past president of the Arlington Lions Club, he worked as a volunteer for the Travelers Aid Society at Reagan Washington National Airport, and for Arlington Hospital. George was a past president of both the Civil War Round Table of Washington, D.C. and the Revolutionary War Round Table of Washington, D.C. George was also a 27 year member of the George Washington Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution tracing his lineage back to his Revolutionary War Patriot Jacob Detwiler.