U18 Coaches

Kaely (Kight) Santos

Kaely returns to the Sideout Volleyball Club for her third season as a head coach. Kaely is currently an assistant coach with the Community Colleges of Spokane volleyball team. She graduated from Central Washington University where she was CWU's team captain and MVP her junior and senior seasons. Kaely holds the CWU record for career digs, and is second all-time in digs per set. Kaely played at Mead High School, where she was a state champion her junior year. Kaely also played for the Sideout Volleyball Club and was tournament MVP for the 16 Open Division at the Emerald Classic tournament. Kaely has coached many summer camps and clinics and loves helping athletes improve and sharing her love for the game.

Jessica (Schmautz) Saugen

Jessica is currently a graduate assistant coach at Whitworth University. She was the NWC player of the year last year at Whitworth and also won team MVP honors for two seasons playing for the Community Colleges of Spokane. Jessica was a three-time All-League honoree at Lakeside High School in Nine Mile Falls and was the Northeast A League MVP as a senior. Jessica was the assistant coach for the Sideout U16 team last season and has coached and run summer volleyball camps for NBC Camps and has also assisted at numerous camps and clinics.

Philosophy and Goals

The Sideout Volleyball Club strives to provide an environment that allows young women athletes to learn, improve and develop their individual and team volleyball skills. This occurs through coaching instruction, practice and competition. We
