This course is designed to further challenge the shooter by requiring more demanding marksmanship, better execution of basic fundamentals, meeting faster time standards, further developing their situational awareness, understanding the condition of their weapon, problem solving and immediate execution of malfunction drills (immediate action drills), and muzzle control. Additional topics will include lateral pistol transitions to maximize proper use of cover, communication, movement, and proper target identification.

This course is a more demanding course and builds on the foundation of Pistol 1.

_As always, bring an open mind._
