NEXT MEETING

Monday, October 26, 2016

Clearwater Main Library

100 N. Osceola Ave.

Clearwater

11:30-1:30 pm

Speaker, Pinellas County Commissioner

Janet Long

Janet Long is not only knowledgeable about all matters in Pinellas County, but she will share her expertise and analysis with us on the amendments on the ballot. We always enjoy and learn from Janet's presentations to us!

This meeting will be our last chance to exchange ideas before the Election. Be there!

President's Message

by Donna Dennis

What an exciting and busy month we've had! Between the DWCF Convention and all the campaign activities, there's scarcely a free moment.

First, Congratulations on a job well done to Mary Freeman, DWCF Convention Chair! All the planning and hard work paid off as we had the best convention ever. Attendance was up, and delegates from all over the state enjoyed getting together and hearing some of the finest speakers our Democratic women could bring to St Pete! I was happy to assist with the goody bags, photographer, live auction and hospitality suite. Many of our Club members were committee chairs and assisted in numerous ways. Thank you to Diane Lebedeff, Jessie Forcan, Sherry Kinder, Carrie Wadlinger, Evelyn Jamilosa, Janet and Gerald Goen, Shelby Freeman, and Michelle Mazuros. Our sister club, the DWCCP, handled the Registration Desk, a very demanding job. Thanks again to all who attended and helped!

October 5th is a National Women's Day of Action!

This means that women all over the country will be flooding campaign offices, making phone calls, and registering voters! Don't find yourself on the sidelines.

Go to the Coordinated Campaign office, 1812 Drew St., Clearwater, for a specific assignment, or contact one of the local candidates you're supporting and help that person. You can make calls from your home if you choose.

It takes a village—and then some—to turn Florida and the USA Blue!

Congratulations to all who contributed to what had to be one of the finest DWCF Conventions ever held. This being our 60th Anniversary I wanted to be sure everyone had a fabulous time. According to our survey results that is exactly what happened. "Best Banner Parade ever," "Superb Speakers and Workshops," "Great tasting food," I could go on and on. Without everyone's help we couldn't have done it!

For those of you couldn't attend you really missed out on some great speakers, such as Dr. Elizabeth McCarthy's remembrance of the Pulse tragedy.

General John Douglass was fascinating and the Veteran Acknowledgement was quite moving.

We were also honored to have NY Congresswoman Nita Lowey who gave a rousing speech supporting our next President "Hillary Clinton."

The one thing that got the most raves was the "Banner Parade." If you weren't there you are probably wondering how that could be. Thanks to Sherry Kinder and her uplifting women's music; she got everyone up on their feet and dancing in the aisles.

Mary Freeman - Convention Chair
