September Recap: Golf and wine at Apple Tree

We all had a beautiful evening for our September YES event at Apple Tree Golf Course. There were 24 in attendance and we were seated on the lower deck outside.

Everyone was greeted with Jack Nicklaus' Reserve White wine while those who wanted to participate competed in a putting contest. We gave away a bottle of wine of their choice to the man and woman closest to the hole. Chuck and Janet were the winners. Then we enjoyed a buffet-style dinner while Kevin Anderson, the golf pro, spoke to us about the golf course and events. We tasted Ernie Els Big Easy Chenin Blanc and Red Blend, Jim Nantz The Calling Sonoma Chardonnay, Greg Norman Pinot Noir, and finally Nick Faldo Katnook Cab with a mixed berry cobbler.

Everyone learned a little about golf with a multiple choice questionnaire. There was also a handout about each golfer and their wine. All of the wines were fabulous, especially the Pinot Noir. There were extra wines for purchase at cost at the end of the evening. Some stayed after to enjoy more wine on a beautiful Yakima evening on the deck at Apple Tree.

Changes in the YES Board

Just prior to our most recent YES Event, at the Apple Tree Golf Course, Barbara Walden submitted her resignation from the YES Board. She's recovering from back surgery and is managing a bed & breakfast with her hard-working husband. We truly appreciate her efforts over the past several years! And, we need to replace her void to maintain at least nine board members!

During the Apple Tree Golf Course event, we sought a replacement board member (or more). To our pleasure, two previous YES board members volunteered to return. Jimi Weaver and Jarvine Mabes (Friends for Life), offered to return.

They both know the roles of a YES board member. They both love wine and "educational" parties. And, they know the commitment required. And, they both signed up....again! Please welcome Jimi and Jarvine! Take it easy on them, for a while.
