In You, we have been redeemed
We're called out of darkness into light
Our lives will never be the same

Rise above the waves
You are here with us
And You're all we'll ever need

You're alive, You're alive
Your name is
Shining bright, shining bright
We'll hold on
To Your promises

We're never letting go
We're never letting go

Your love is the anchor in the storm
We'll trust in You for all our days
We give all we are to You
Our lives a light for all to see
