

Learn Spanish at TPE

“How does dyslexia impact learning a foreign language in high school and college?”

It's one of the most common concerns for families during the middle and high school years. The answer will not be the same for everyone, however there is no reason to assume that with dyslexia, foreign language proficiency cannot be achieved.

Spanish instruction at True Potential Education:

1. Systematic
2. Sequential
3. Multi-sensory

Two Convenient Options

Group Spanish class, Mondays 6:00 - 8:00PM
Individual Spanish sessions, by appointment

Meet our Instructor, Miss Rhonda

Rhonda Stoker has a BA in Elementary Education with an endorsement in Reading and Special Education. She has completed a total of seven years of Spanish in high school and college, taught ESL in Guatemala, is an experienced translator, and also speaks Spanish on a regular basis at home. In August, 2019, Rhonda began her seventh year as an elementary school teacher, and also taught the Wilson Reading Program at True Potential Education for four years.
