

My Cambodian Trail....

Helen Camarce's Newsletter July 2019

Dear Friends in Christ,

"An angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat'" - 1 Kings 19:5

It took me a while to dare write again. So many things had already happened although I know God has been there all along, at all times, prepared me emotionally, and in every aspect in my life, even physically on things that will happen. Still.....facing your own reality is scary.

Benjie, my husband has gone and joined our Creator last January 15, 2019. Three days after we arrived from our vacation in the Philippines.

And that time when I just received extension ministry to Vietnam and Thailand and that time that my son, Amiel will also be leaving for his university.

I asked Him why? But my whys were overwhelmed by His amazing blessings and preparation. It is real when He say He will be there even before you reach any new situation in your life. He will never leave you.

God has blessed me with beautiful people around me. Angels who surrounds me during my lowest times, I have not even reached my lowest because there are angels holding me until now. Maybe I am not ready yet, and God is giving me enough time. I have not dealt with my alone-ness yet.

But like Elijah when he was scared and was hiding, God 's angels told me to "get up and eat" and continue with my work. That's why I'm back.

Thank you God for the angels, thank You for sending them to me, and thanks to all the angels beside me and far away for your prayers.....

Amiel is now a Monash University student in Malaysia

Sending-off my youngest son to University. Amiel had to leave and pursue his new journey in life. Living in Kuala Lumpur by himself. Thank God, Malaysia is just 2 hours away from Cambodia.

Extension work in Vietnam and Thailand

Extended work for me to train new treasurers in Vietnam and Thailand and to finish reports that they left. Traveling by bus for 6 hours to Ho Chi Minh and 1 hour by plane to Chiang Mai. I have to visit them many times this year.

Heng Dina -Economics

Bo Nino - IT

Hourn Sokhy-Banking & Finance

Kim Dara Sambath-IT

We have graduated our scholars....

Wonderful to see our scholars graduating from their colleges. The traditional graduation comes after 1 or 2 years because the school has to line up to invite the Prime Minister to speak in their school. Dina Heng graduates with Bachelors Degree in Economics. Bo Nino- one of our physically challenge student, graduates with Information Technology Degree and working now at AMK Microfinance. Hourn Sokhy graduated in 2017 been working at CMBS then move to a resort. Kim Dara Sambath graduates with IT Degree. Two of them from Youth and Children Scholarship and 2 from Women's Scholarship.

"Each of you should use whatever gift you had received to serve others as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." - 1Peter 4:10
