Kate Duncan Smith DAR School

2017 Annual Report

The "Gem" of Gunter Mountain
Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Kate Duncan Smith DAR School to educate the boys and girls of Gunter Mountain. We believe the privilege of a sound education is a heritage which should be enjoyed by all the citizens of our country. We believe all our children should be afforded such advantages as shall develop in them the largest capacities for performing the duties of American citizenship and to enlighten them in the knowledge and practice of pure and noble citizenship. We further believe the school environment should be disciplined with emphasis on positive attitudes and academic excellence which will nurture in them the desire to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty. With high expectations, purposes and standards, the KDS DAR School accepts the missions to educate the youth of Gunter Mountain.

Chairman’s Message

Much was accomplished at Kate Duncan Smith DAR School in 2017. I’d like to share with you just a few highlights from an outstanding year.

In celebration of the 200th anniversary of Alabama’s statehood, the KDS DAR School Executive Committee adopted an Alabama Bicentennial Resolution for the school. The Bicentennial provides a unique opportunity to celebrate and uplift the State during this historic time. KDS boasts its own unique history, and we are pleased to partner with the Alabama Bicentennial Commission during the next three years to celebrate our state. In conjunction with the Alabama Bicentennial’s “Year of Exploring our Places”, KDS hosted the Marshall County Paint-Out art exhibition. The exhibit contained 15 pieces depicting Marshall County sites and was displayed in the Michigan Center, October 12 – November 19, 2017.

Appreciation is expressed to the Alabama Officers Club DAR for spearheading a project to refurbish the sandstone front patio and sidewalks at Lane Chapel. The finished product is lovely and even includes a sloped transition from the parking lot for handicapped accessibility. Many thanks to all the donors who made these improvements possible.

In 2017, KDS assumed primary responsibility for the Blessings Bags and Patriot Pantry programs to address the critical need for adequate nourishment for students. Thanks to community members and donors from across the country, this transition has been a smooth one and KDS continues to provide food bags and other personal items for our students.

Another Pre-K classroom was added at the beginning of the 2017-18 school year. This brings the total to three Pre-K classes on the KDS campus, serving 54 children from the community.

There are also a number of projects currently ongoing. Work is underway to compile a list of the various markers and plaques on campus. This list will be kept as a record of historic events in an effort to keep history alive.

The Pennsylvania Log Cabin is being cleaned and organized so that it can be opened as a “Heritage Hall” museum. The museum will feature a timeline of historic KDS events, exhibits of school and community interest, archival materials, etc.

And, also in 2017, work began on developing a strategic plan that will guide the work of the school for the next five years and into the future. We are currently gathering data so that we may make the best possible decisions about goals and strategies to direct our programs in the most efficient and effective ways. I am very excited about the work we are doing and look forward to sharing our findings and plans in the coming months.

Thanks to the members of the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees for their continued support. Without the support of these dedicated individuals, KDS would not be able to serve the needs of its students and provide them with a solid foundation in patriotism and citizenship.

And thank you to each of you for your continued support of the KDS DAR School. Your generous gifts enable us to provide a patriotic education for the students. You are always welcome to visit our campus and interact with the students.
Each time I attend a DAR State Conference or Chapter meeting, I am amazed and inspired by the meaningful ways in which DAR members serve their communities and their country. Millions of hours of community service are being logged each year by DAR members, and certainly millions more will be contributed in years to come.

Following the example set by the DAR, at KDS, we believe that to serve others is one of the most important lessons we can teach our students. Participating in community service activities provides students with the opportunity to become active members of their community and has lasting benefits for the student, the organization, and society as a whole. Some of the common benefits of students participating in community service are:

Psychological: Volunteering helps students feel good about themselves because they are helping others. It can also help to decrease stress and ease depression.

Social: Volunteering engages students with the community, creates better understanding of the population being served, increases social awareness and responsibility, and teaches them to work as a team.

Cognitive: Volunteering helps students enhance their personal knowledge, experience new things, and develop better interpersonal communication skills.

Engaging in community service activities also helps students build their resumes by allowing them to obtain work-related skills prior to graduation, build a list of references, and develop contacts with future potential employers. Additionally it helps students acquire civic and social responsibility skills and become more aware of areas of need within their community.

Throughout a given school year, KDS students are volunteering their time and talents to a number of worthy organizations and causes. Examples of recent community service projects undertaken by KDS students include supply drives for disaster relief, blood drives, community clean-ups, fundraisers for the Wounded Warriors Project and ‘Pennies for Patients’, canned food drives, packing Blessings Bags, and singing Christmas carols to nursing home residents.

Community service is not only encouraged at KDS; in some instances, it is required. Students who are members of National Honor Society must complete and document a minimum of 10 hours of community service in order to graduate with that distinction. And several clubs and organizations have community service as a fundamental organizational objective.

In all cases, community service is an integral part of the KDS student experience. It is important to not only produce students who are prepared academically, but who are also engaged and involved in their community and their country.

It’s a Great Time to Visit KDS!

It’s always a good time to visit KDS! Plan to spend a day with students, visit historic buildings, and see first-hand how you make a difference at KDS DAR School.

Contact Development Director Beth Cagle at 256-728-4236 or bcagle@nehp.net to schedule a visit for you and/or your chapter.

Thanks to caring teachers, challenging coursework, and his own determination, Larry Anderson graduated as valedictorian of the KDS DAR High School Class of 1965. Throughout high school, he was encouraged to take advanced courses to further his studies and better prepare him for the future.

According to Anderson, “I was very fortunate to have a series of outstanding teachers who prepared me for college, especially in language arts and mathematics.” Mr. Tom Colvin encouraged Anderson to try more advanced mathematics than normally offered in small high schools of the era and the principal, Mr. Campbell, approved an advanced high school math course. “I only had to find 4 more people to take it,” he added.

Anderson excelled in English as well. “Mr. Herbert Weeks really stressed the proper use of the English language and coherent writing. Both served me well throughout my 50 years of work,” he said.

Scholarships helped him attend Jacksonville State University where he received a Bachelor’s of Science in Mathematics and Physics. “I received the KDS Alumni Association scholarship in 1965. It was for $563 and paid my room, board, tuition and fees for one semester. Several times, the KDS Executive Secretary, Mr. Bradford, provided small grants which allowed me to continue in college. If I had attended any other school, I am not sure I could have gone to college immediately out of high school,” Anderson recalled.

Participating in multiple writing contests sponsored by the DAR and several speaking opportunities while in high school prepared Anderson for a competitive application process for entry into the Reserve Officers Training Corps, starting him on a path with the U.S. Army and the Corps of Engineers he never planned.

“I entered college thinking I wanted to be a college math professor. ROTC was something I did because the draft was waiting at graduation. Once in the Army, I discovered that I liked it. Also, it turned out that I was not that good at math,” he said.

Anderson was with the Army Corps of Engineers from 1969-1973 and was an Army Ordnance Corps Tank Automotive Maintenance Officer from 1973-1990. In 1990, he began his work with the Army Acquisition Corps, a position he held until 2001 when he retired as a Colonel.

When asked about his work with the Army, Anderson responded, “With the Army Ordnance Corps, I managed the readiness of fleets of combat vehicles and weapons including tanks, Artillery, helicopters, trucks, etc. As an Acquisition Corps officer, I managed the development of large weapons models and simulations, high energy laser tests, and missile defense technology development.”

After his retirement from military service, Anderson started a company in Huntsville, Alabama, doing information technology, software development, support to government business operations, and administrative support to a Department of Defense agency, the Army, Air Force, Navy and NASA. But it was at his first job where he learned an important business lesson. “I worked after school cleaning classrooms. Mr. Hamner, the principal at the time, had me checking the work of other student janitors when I was in the 7th grade. I learned the most valuable lesson that business and friendship needed to be kept separate.”

Anderson sold the ownership share of his business and retired in 2015, though he still serves on the company’s board. In 2016, he and his wife of 50 years, Lee Marshall Anderson, relocated to Pflugerville, Texas, to be closer to their two children – Matthew, a civil engineer who lives in Texas, and Megan, a physical therapist who resides in Oregon. In his spare time, Anderson enjoys playing in a country/bluegrass/classic rock band and building and repairing stringed musical instruments.

In 2014, Anderson began giving annually three scholarships to KDS students. The Anderson Family Scholarships are named for his parents and grandparents and are awarded to young men and women in the top 25 of their graduating class who are pursuing degrees in technical careers. When asked why he wanted to help students at his alma mater attend college, Anderson responded, “The scholarships I received from KDS allowed me to get started in college. Sponsoring scholarships to current graduates just seemed like the right thing to do.”
KDS administrators learned mid-summer that the Guntersville Distribution Center for the Blessings in a Backpack program would no longer be including Marshall County Schools in its program.

“Because this is such a valuable program for our students, we proceeded with plans to continue locally,” said KDS Executive Director Heather Green.

Two local organizations are partnering with KDS to supply ‘Blessings Bags’ for approximately 220 students Pre-K through 5th grade. Grant Church of Christ is serving as the packing partner for the program, providing space for bag assembly and helping to coordinate volunteers. Dennis Foodland orders the ready-to-eat food items at a discounted rate.

Green said, “Our community response has been tremendous, and we are fortunate to have so many friends who are committed to the health and well-being of children.”

‘Blessings Bags’ are packed each Thursday during the school year. Excess food items each week are placed in the Patriot Pantry boxes within each school.

“The Patriot Pantries in each school offer a discrete way for students to get the things they need – snacks, clothing items, toiletries. It has been a great addition to our school,” Green commented.

The cost to sponsor a child is $100 per year. Those interested in contributing to this valuable program should contact KDS Development Director Beth Cagle at 256-728-4236 or bcagle@nehp.net.

Book Fair Bucks

Ensuring every child at KDS can buy a book of their own is a concept one DAR member took from the idea stage to fundraising to implementation.

Suzanne Landry is the Florida State Society DAR School Vice Chairman, and she wanted to do something to directly benefit KDS students. Recalling time spent volunteering at her own childrens’ school book fairs, Suzanne raised funds from Florida Daughters to sponsor “Book Fair Bucks” for students at KDS. The bucks certificates were awarded to children in the spring and in the fall by their teachers to recognize classroom achievement. Thanks to Suzanne and Florida DAR members, more than 200 students in KDS Elementary and Middle Schools were able to select a book from the book fair at no cost to them.

And as if her “Book Fair Bucks” project was not generous enough, Suzanne also drove from Pensacola, Florida, and spent four days in the spring and again in the fall working at both school book fairs and seeing her idea through to completion. Thank you, Suzanne, for your efforts on behalf of the children of KDS DAR School!
Members of the Gem Sustained Giving Society demonstrate an ongoing commitment to the needs of KDS and its students by making a modest donation each month, creating a consistent and reliable source of income that allows the school to plan ahead and address critical needs before they arise. This exclusive group of supporters provides a steady source of income for the Annual Giving Fund and the most important resource of all – the more than 1,300 children who have the privilege of attending KDS DAR School.

There are a number of benefits to members of the Gem Sustained Giving Society:

- Joining is easy and convenient. Simply complete the form, and return it to KDS.
- Makes setting and achieving a donation goal easy. Your annual giving goal can be broken out over 12 months, taking the guesswork out of when and how much to give.
- The program is flexible. You choose the annual donation amount, and you decide when and how you want the contribution to be made. And, of course, you may change your preferences at any time.
- It’s safe. Your contribution will be made via secure electronic funds transfer from your checking account.
- Contributions made through the Gem Sustained Giving Society qualify to receive the same recognition as other Annual Giving Fund donations.
- Members of the Gem Sustained Giving Society will receive a unique and beautiful recognition pin and a new gem charm at the conclusion of each year of continuous annual pledge fulfillment.

For information on how you can become a member of the KDS Gem Sustained Giving Society, contact Development Director Beth Cagle at 256-728-4236 or bcagle@nehp.net.
When I was in 5th grade, my family moved to Alabama when my father was stationed at Redstone Arsenal through the U.S. Army. Not wanting to live on base with two teenage daughters, my parents began their search for a good area to raise their family. We moved to Grant because of the reputation of the KDS DAR School.

By the time we settled on Gunter Mountain, I had lived in five states and two foreign countries. I was not only welcomed to the community as if I was family, but the school introduced me to a sisterhood in the DAR that I will have for my entire life.

When I joined the DAR in 2000, I was searching for a way to give back to the school. My employer does matching contributions to non-profit organizations, so I started giving to the KDS Endowment Fund at just a couple dollars a paycheck and have gradually increased it over time. I track my donations through the KDS Gem Sustained Giving Society, and can set goals and achieve various recognition levels with my cumulative giving. I am currently at the Patriot Level of giving! When the school has an immediate special need, whether it is sending the band to Florida to play in a bowl game, sponsoring a teacher’s classroom or a baseball field, I always try to give what I can to help out, but the monthly gifts to the Endowment Fund are set up to be sent and matched each month.

The KDS Community is rich in the really important things in life; their sense of family, community, patriotism and love of God. However, more than 60% of the families live below the poverty level. Through the DAR and direct donations to the school, students are afforded a top-notch education, and opportunities to go to college, start businesses and help others. I can never give enough money to repay the school and the community for what they have given me, but perhaps through my donations I will provide opportunities to someone who might not be able to financially afford to go to college. Who knows? A future President or the next Einstein might be graduating from the school this year.

KDS is more than just a school. It is the centerpiece in an entire community. Multiple generations of families have thrived because they attended KDS. The school provides food, clothing, books, plays, music, sports, festivals and much more. My parents raised me, but a significant part of the woman I am today is because of the sense of family and the values instilled in me from my time at KDS. My life is blessed because of the time I spent at KDS…the Gem of Gunter Mountain.

“I can never give enough money to repay the school and the community for what they have given me.”

Does your employer match charitable contributions? A corporate matching gift can have an even greater impact on the lives of KDS and its students. For more information on setting up your matching gift, contact Development Director Beth Cagle at 256-728-4236 or bcagle@nehp.net.
Dual Enrollment Creates Opportunities for Students

Dual Enrollment is a program that allows high school students (usually sophomores, juniors, and seniors) to enroll in college courses. Students who participate are earning college credit prior to high school graduation, and are receiving credit toward their high school diplomas as well.

According to KDS DAR High School Counselor Kathy Culbertson, “Dual enrollment gives many of our more mature students the opportunity to begin their college career early. They learn how to manage their time and activities while balancing courses in high school as well as college.”

Dual enrollment is an attractive option for students, and the demand for these classes is increasing every year, but not every KDS student interested in pursuing this opportunity has the financial means to do so.

“On average, a single class at a local community college is $450, and many of our students cannot afford that,” said Culbertson. “And since the vast majority of college scholarships are awarded when a child graduates from high school, there really hasn’t been any financial help available for dual enrollment classes.”

At the beginning of the 2017-18 school year, a generous donor learned about this need and provided seed money to start a KDS Dual Enrollment Scholarship Fund.

“It was so exciting to learn that funds were available to help our students with dual enrollment classes. It really levels the playing field between those whose families have the means and those who do not,” Culbertson added.

Students receiving a KDS Dual Enrollment Scholarship must first meet the necessary requirements: minimum ACT scores, solid GPAs, and recommendations from the high school to take college courses. During the 2017-18 school year, seven KDS students received support from this fund to help pay for dual enrollment courses.

“The students who have been helped through this scholarship are very appreciative,” said Culbertson. “The support of the DAR and the community is a blessing and is truly helping our students succeed.”

Planned Giving

Establish a legacy of support for KDS DAR School and its students with planned giving.

The goal of planned giving is to structure your estate and charitable giving plans in order to bring maximum benefit to you, your family, and KDS DAR School. It’s a common misconception that estate planning is only for those who are extremely wealthy. Having a clearly defined document or set of documents to outline your plans for your estate is the best way to ensure your wishes are followed.

There are a number of ways to designate a planned gift to KDS:

- Bequest: A gift made through a will or living trust.

- Annuity: You can make a gift to KDS now and receive guaranteed fixed payments for life.

- Life Insurance: Name KDS beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

Your gift demonstrates your commitment to KDS DAR School and its students.

For more information on how to include KDS in your estate plans, contact Development Director Beth Cagle at 256-728-4236 or bcagle@nehp.net.
