Dear Pastor Johnson:

Praise the Lord!

We extend to you our gratitude for the delivery of such a wonderful presentation for the Leadership of New Antioch Baptist Church of Randallstown, on March 23, 2019.

As the enclosed evaluation summary shows, our Leadership Members were most appreciative of the message that you brought.

On behalf of First Lady, Ellen Barney, and the New Antioch Baptist Church of Randallstown family, I am...

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Kenneth L. Barney, Sr., D.D.

- A very enjoyable session. Everything was excellent.
- O thank god for the vision to see the need for growth. I know I'm in the right place. Thank you, Pastor and Lady Barney.
- I wish that he would have used more examples from scriptures rather than the gentleman who accompanied him. I still learned some ways to improve my own communication skills.
- "Good Topics, control of time and presentation."
- Good workshop. However, maybe too many personal stories that made workshop go off track, but speaker could relate back to subject. Maybe include bagels for continental breakfast.
- Presenters' doctrine should be inline with the doctrine of NABC, to avoid conflicts. (For example) (The role of women as Pastors).
- The presenter spoke a lot about himself, a lot of "I" references.

COMMENTS

- Always a good workshop. I think this should be done twice a year.
- Great nuggets of wisdom and practical tips and breakdown of scripture; would have liked more notes (tangible takeaways); would have liked to dig deeper on some topics, (motivation, managing perceptions)
- Great information presented by a great facilitator...Very insightful and reassuring for ministry development. Thank you for the opportunity!!!
- Great job!
- Great workshop; very motivating and engaging.
- Additional opportunities for audience participation/interaction would have been good—there is a great deal of knowledge, experience and wisdom in the room related to spiritual and secular development that could have been tapped in to.
- Workshop was excellent. Teacher was transparent and gave a great presentation. Maybe we can have a website that has the slides that can be downloaded.
- I sincerely wish that the 10 ways to increase influence had been on the handout. Excellent presentation.
- I would like to have seen presenter spend less time in personal illustrations and spend more time teaching, especially in the beginning of the workshop. The information was very relevant, however, when presentation centered on theme/ Christ/scriptural supports. I wish that the presenter would have given out handouts concerning the last half of workshop, which was loaded with excellent information.
- Praise God—another blessing from our leaders!! I'm so grateful to sit under NABCOR's leadership and learn so, so much to be able to share with others. Thank You, Jesus!
- I especially enjoyed the discussion of 3 John—it's a letter we don't always take time to realize its importance.
- Sister BARNEY, every speaker you have brought us has been spirit -filled and trained. I am so thankful to have you and Pastor Barney as our leaders here at Antioch.
- I enjoyed the personal interjections of Pastor Johnson.
- Speaker was knowledgeable and engaging. Was honest and open, very approachable. Suggestion for next year—Emotional intelligence.
- Excellent presenters, materials, examples and interaction with the group. Needs improvement—the size of the PowerPoint font.
- Good information. Would highly recommend for future sessions.
- The presenter was excellent. He was clear, knowledgeable, gave excellent examples made sure we understood the point before moving on to the next.
- Perfect. Cynthia Evans.
- Rev. Johnson should return to New Antioch to discuss a different topic.
