

A Warm Winter Tail

Written by Carrie Pearson

Illustrated by Christina Wald

Published by Sylvan Dell [now Arbordale] Publishing, August 2012

ISBN: 978-1607185291

Gelett Burgess Award: Nature for All Ages

Nominated for Great Lakes, Great Read Program, Michigan Reading Association

A narrative nonfiction rhyming story using call and response and compare/contrast about animal adaptation to cold. Written from animals' perspectives.

Ages 4-8

Includes four pages of educational aids for teachers and parents with additional learning tools on the Arbordale website

Some reviews:

Library Media Connection: Highly Recommended

Kirkus: A cozy "tail" compares the adaptations animals and humans have for surviving winter's chill.

Feathered Quill: An excellent introduction to the various ways animals deal with the cold