

VIGNAUD IS HONORED

American Attache Is Made Grand Officer, Legion of Honor.

PARIS, May 14.—The French Government, as a mark of the high esteem in which it holds Henry Vignaud, First Secretary of the American Embassy here, has made him a grand officer of the Legion of Honor. This rank as a rule is conferred only on the chiefs of diplomatic missions.

Mr. Vignaud has been a commander of the Legion for the last 20 years.
