

From Mid-City Messenger

<http://midcitymessenger.com/2015/07/11/faubourg-st-john-celebrates-bastille-day/#more-11026>

Posted by Zach Brien at 11:27 pm Uncategorized

Jul 11 2015

Bart Ramsey of Harmonouche sings "Sunny Side of the Street" at the Faubourg St. John Bastille Day Block Party on Ponce de Leon. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

On Saturday afternoon in Faubourg St. John, a block party was held on Ponce de Leon near Esplanade avenue to celebrate Bastille Day sponsored by the French American Chamber of Commerce. Tents from near-by restaurants Cafe Degas, Santa Fe and others provided the food. Music was provided by Harmonouche, Ukulele Jake and Kid Merv. Bastille Day is the celebration of the beginning of the French Revolution on July 14, 1789.

Crowds packed Ponce de Leon during Saturday's festival. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

Mary Poché dresses up as Marie Antoinette for Saturday's festivities. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

Kid Merv closes out the block party. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

Kitty Jensen and Steve Ledebur dressed up as pirates for the block party. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

Jason and Shannon Lopez dance to Harmonouche. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)

Carl Westerman dances with his daughter Katie to the sounds of Kid Merv. (Zach Brien, MidCityMessenger.com)