

H₂FUEL

H2Fuel is a water bottle that charges regular water with hydrogen and antioxidants to produce anti-aging, electron rich, hydrogen infused water.

BENEFITS

- Improved water taste
- Provides natural energy and balance
- Increase intracellular hydration and reduce oxidation
- Increase anti-aging properties
- Charges your water with hydrogen and electrons

"I take my H2Fuel with me to the gym and everyone always wants to know what it is and how it works. I love the natural energy I feel after drinking this hydrogen-rich water."

- Dale W.

WHAT H2FUEL PROVIDES:

H2Fuel infuses activated hydrogen (H₂) into the water to increase intracellular hydration and reduce oxidation associated with physical exertion and aging.

FEATURES

- Uses electrolysis to infuse an adjustable amount of activated hydrogen (H₂) into drinking water
- A green light indicated the unit is in operating mode, and hydrogen bubbles rise from the bottom of the bottle
- A blue light indicated the unit has reached its set time (3-5 minutes) and is in standby mode

GREAT FOR PEOPLE WHO:

Athletes

Anyone concerned about their hydration
