

Errors and Contradictions?
Psalm 19:7-14; John 8:42-58
February 16, 2020

God is God, and satan is a _____ and the arch deceiver. Jesus is God, and satan is _____ as a liar. Many modern critics claim that the Bible is error ridden, but that claim is a _____ impression at best. The skeptic is always trying to find an _____ for his rejection of God's Word.

A. So-called errors and contradictions in the Bible are _____.

1. Errors are _____ with an infallible Bible.
2. They are like trying to find a _____ speck on a great piece of art.

B. Difficulties in the Bible are generally scientific, _____, or ethical/moral in their nature.

1. Scientific difficulties are because of _____.
2. Historical challenges must be _____ one by one.
3. Moral and _____ difficulties must take into account the _____ of man's heart.

C. We are not to be _____ of any criticism of the Bible.

1. Difficulties in the Bible do not _____ their infallible nature.
2. When our finite mind tries to understand the _____ mind of God, there will be difficulty.

D. We are not to apply _____ to the Scriptures which do not suit them.

1. The Bible was not written to give us a _____ course in science, mathematics, or history.
2. Its purpose is to make us children of God through _____.

E. Difficulties that come from our _____ or stupidity.

1. Where did _____ get his wife?
2. _____ lists
3. Number of _____ in Numbers 11:3

4. Objection to the language God used to _____ an event
5. Emendations (corrections) in copies of the _____.
6. 2 Kings 18:14
7. Acts 5:36
8. Number of _____ taken into Noah's ark (Gen. 7:2)
9. Superscription over the _____ of Jesus (John 19:20)
10. Miracles
A Bible without miracles would be a Bible without _____!