

Armageddon Contrasted with God's Kingdom

Isaiah 34:1 – 35:10

April 11, 2021

In this section of Scripture, Isaiah reiterates that God is _____ over all nations and will hold them _____ to His righteousness. The judgment of _____ nations will occur in the tribulation days, and following that, Israel will be _____ and experience glory in the Messiah's millennial kingdom.

A. Great _____ (34:1-17)

1. Military _____
 - a. Armies of _____ (vv. 1-3)
 - b. Armies of _____ (v. 4)
2. Massive _____ and destruction
 - a. "_____ of the LORD" – furious judgment of anger against sin
 - b. Result: the world's armies will be _____.
 - (1). Horrible _____ of unburied, rotting corpses
 - (2). The mountains will flow with their _____.
 - (3). The heavens will _____ and the stars will fall.
3. Messy _____: Idumea (Edom) – representing estranged unbelievers
 - a. The people will be cut down like animals for a _____.
 - b. The ground will be covered with _____; the streams will be filled with burning _____.
 - c. The land will become _____ and uninhabited.
 - d. The certainty of God's judgement is guaranteed in _____!

B. Glorious _____ (35:1-10)

1. Life in the _____ age – its characteristics:

- a. The deserts will _____.
- b. The _____ will walk.
- c. The mute will _____ and sing.
- d. The _____ will see.
- e. The deaf will _____.
- f. A _____ of Holiness will be built.

2. Life in the _____ age – the challenge (2 Peter 3:9-13)
 - a. The _____ of the coming Millennium should give strength, _____, and hope to all believers living in difficult times.
 - b. The Day of the Lord will come as a _____ in the night, so be _____ and faithfully serving Him.