A Tale of Two Cities is a multi-media project that builds relationships across movements, issues, cultures, and great distances. It honors those who have lost their lives striving for liberation, and seeks to strengthen community and solidarity.
The Tale of Two Cities: Olympia-Rafah Solidarity Mural Project (GR3MP) is directed by Susan Greene and co-produced by Art Forces/Break the Silence Media and Arts Project and the Rachel Corrie Foundation for Peace and Justice. Co-sponsors are Middle East Children’s Alliance, the International Trauma Treatment Program, and the Gaza Community Mental Health Programme. Funding provided in part by LEFTTILT Foundation.

and make more visible the efforts of some of the many organizations and individuals who work for justice. It moves from the local to the global, from Olympia, Washington to Rafah, Palestine and beyond. www.olympiarafahmural.org
