

October 2020 Family Community Activity List

We make every effort to ensure the accuracy of this information. However, you should always call ahead to confirm dates, times, location, and other information!

Exciting Groups

Good Life Group – We are currently meeting through Zoom on October 24nd at 5:30pm via Zoom during this COVID19. If you want to participate, please Contact Kristi Kliewer for log on information at kkliewer@abilitiesfirst.net for a password and invite to the Zoom app for the meeting. It has been designed to assist people to think about what they want in their life, and break that down into management steps to start moving toward their vision of a good life. Ages 18 and older. For questions or to RSVP contact Kristi.

Art Inspired Academy

Art Inspired Academy Summer Schedule is out for September/October. They are adding more and more classes weekly. The classes will all be over Zoom. You can now schedule for fall classes at www.artinspiredacademy.org. Please call the office at 417-886-0404 ext 4 and give them your email to get on their mailing list. If you have a funding source and need help with registration, please call their offices to register.

ONLINE Zoom! CLASSES

Registration is first come, first serve. Each class will be a small size (approximately five students total). When you register for an AIA zoom class, you'll receive an email password that will allow you to log into your online class and some tips on how to get the most out of your online AIA classes. If you have to miss a session of your AIA Zoom class, we understand. However, there will be no make up sessions. Please do not sign up for a class unless you are confident that you'll be able to attend regularly at that time. Expect to quickly go over some rules, best practices & guidelines in our first session and to get down to virtual business after that!

Saturday @ 10:50 am. "Healing Music" Concert Tour by Virtuoso Violinist Jaime Jorge @ Spfd MO Seventh-day Adventist Church. Jaime is a very gifted violinist who also has an inspiring story to share. Jaime began playing the violin at the age of five. Born and raised in communist Cuba, he was given many opportunities-including an offer to study in Moscow with some of the greatest musicians of our time-if only he and his family would renounce their belief in God. They refused. When Jaime was ten, miraculously, his family was given the opportunity to leave the country. They came to the United States, where Jaime received a Christian education and violin lessons with eminent violinist and teacher Cyrus Forough. But Jaime dreamed of being a missionary doctor, and in 1994 he entered the University of Illinois School of Medicine. In 1996, he left medical school and a promising medical career to follow God's call to devote his life to full-time music ministry. FREE Admission! Thursday Coworking @ Itty Bitty City, Spfd. 2 pm. Need to get some work done, but your kids just want to play? The Coworking program at Itty Bitty City will allow you to spend time at a dedicated workstation at Itty Bitty City while our Playologicsts supervise your child(ren) in the play areas. You will have access to high speed internet on secure WiFi as well as a quiet room for conference calls. We will have workstations set up in the Birthday Party Room and the Playology Lab, but space is very limited due to social distancing measures. The cost per session is $20 for your first child and $15 for each additional child. Or you can purchase a monthly Coworking Membership that includes your choice of 4 sessions in the same calendar month. This is $60 for your first child and $45 for each additional child (basically you get one session free!) To register for this unique work/play experience, email events@ittbitty.city with your name, phone number and any questions you have – we'll call you to complete registration!
