Dear COVID-19 Applicant:

The purpose of this program is to provide services to those who have been directly affected by the COVID-19 pandemic in the following areas:

- Lay-Off due to business shut down
- Loss of work due to contracting the COVID-19 virus
- Loss of work due to being exposed to the virus and mandated to quarantine or isolate
- Unable to work or a reduction in work hours due to providing distance learning schooling for your children (i.e., school closure, medical)
- Other (please attach a written statement with supporting documentation)

You must return all applicable supporting documentation relating to your request within the timeframe of impact such as:

- Copy of Narragansett Indian Tribal Enrollment
- Lay-Off letter from employer
- Unemployment verification (Pandemic Unemployment Assistance Monetary Determination Notice)
- Proof of reduction in work hours and or rate of pay (pre-COVID-19 impact and post COVID-19 pay stubs)
- Statement from employer regarding reduced work hours
- If requesting assistance for medical costs or co-pays, please provide copy of bills showing COVID-19 related. Must relate to period of impact.
- Childcare expenses due to COVID-19; provide invoice/bill from licensed provider
- Copy of rental agreement/lease (signed by the applicant and landlord)
- Copy of mortgage statement
- Business closure (proof that you own the business, recent tax returns regarding the business, EIN# and schedule C).

Notice: An individual has 90 days from date of impact to apply. Service is One-time per applicant and based on the availability of funds. Applications are referred to the Housing Department for rental, mortgage, and utilities assistance; a separate housing application will be required. If you are specifically seeking housing/mortgage/utilities contact the Department of Housing at (401) 364-1100 ext. 233. If you have questions regarding this application, please feel free to contact Jenny Johnson at (401) 364-1100 ext. 202.

Sincerely,

COVID-19 TEAM
