CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

This is to certify that the NEOPRENE O-RING RUBBER GASKET MATERIAL supplied by Press-Seal Corporation, 2424 W. State Boulevard, Fort Wayne, Indiana, is manufactured in the United States of America using North American, and globally sourced components and meet or exceed the Specification requirements of ASTM C 443 for Oil-Resistant Gaskets, ASTM C 1619 Class B for Oil-Resistant Gaskets, and CSA A257.3 for Oil-Resistant Gaskets.

This certification does not guarantee any field application or testing performance criteria. These criteria are controlled by product dimensions and tolerances, as well as field installation conditions and techniques, which are outside the control of the manufacturer.

Sincerely,
PRESS-SEAL CORPORATION
