

Jeff Kmiec Named Chief Operating Officer at Nemacolin Woodlands Resort

FARMINGTON, PA (April 2, 2018) – Nemacolin Woodlands Resort announces the appointment of Jeff Kmiec as Chief Operating Officer of the luxury resort located in the Laurel Highlands of Pennsylvania. He will join the company on April 9, 2018.

Kmiec is a Nemacolin alumni, having served as the director of sales and marketing from 2003 to 2007. “As we strive each day to provide extraordinary experiences and spectacular service to each guest and member, we’re thrilled to welcome Jeff back to oversee all aspects of the resort,” said Nemacolin President & Owner Maggie Hardy Magerko. “His institutional knowledge of the resort combined with his fresh perspectives across the industry make him a perfect fit for this executive role.”

Kmiec rejoins Nemacolin from Sotherly Hotels/Chesapeake Hospitality, where he served as Managing Director and oversaw renovations, operations and the rebranding of the DeSoto Hilton in Savannah, Georgia. He has a track record of growing hospitality brands, having served as the President & Managing Director at The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia; Director of Sales & Marketing/Chief Information Officer at Sawgrass Marriott Golf Resort & Spa in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida; and Vice President of Marketing at 84 Lumber in Eighty Four, Pennsylvania.
