

BORDETELLA is a highly contagious respiratory infection transmitted through the air “Kennel Cough”. Depending on your veterinarian the vaccine may be given as early as 8 weeks of age and may require a booster within 2-4 weeks. A booster then is given annually thereafter either by injection or intranasally.