Modern Children's Books with Traditional Values

These cool books make reading fun and encourage physical activity, and you'll appreciate the positive themes: believing in yourself, sportsmanship, sharing, inclusion, bullying, respecting the environment, friendship, and generosity. The X-tails children's books are for boys and girls of all ages—and they're adored by even the most reluctant readers. Plus, they're written in Prince George, British Columbia by author, L.A. Fielding.

Reviews:

* "We can't keep the library copies in for more than a few minutes." – Joseph Jeffery, Learning Commons Teacher

* "The best part is that each story has a lesson or moral behind them that the students can relate to and learn from." - Stacey Thompson, Elementary School

* "Gets kids excited about being outside and doing a positive physical activity, and very interactive." – Natalie, Librarian

* "My son loves your books! A big thank you for making reading fun for my son as reading is something he struggles with. " -Tamara P

* "My husband and I like the books because of the lessons about friendship and acceptance. My boys love the books!" - Toni Boer

* "My 10 year old has never liked to read until we discovered the X-tails. Now we find him curdled up reading and he even requests more X-tails books." - Tracie Mayert

The X-tails has teamed up with _____ to offer an X-tails Book Fundraiser! Your school/group keeps 40% of the sales from the fundraiser - more than most other fundraisers. Here's the best part: not only do you receive the X-tails books, but you get SIGNED copies of the books that you order! L.A. Fielding will personally sign your child's book and include their name, so it's completely personalized for them. Purchasing a book, or several, for your child, grandchild, nephew or niece is a thoughtful gift, and one that will spur their imagination and love of literacy.
