

RESTAURANT BUSINESS

By: Heather Lalley

May 30, 2017

6 CONCEPTS TO CHECK OUT ON YOUR SUMMER TRAVELS

6. Hotel dining's renaissance continues

We recently reported on the batch of innovative concepts going into hotels. Here's one more to add to the list: the Albert, at Chicago's new Hotel EMC2, focuses on seasonal, globally-inspired fare. The 120-seat space features a glass chandelier-like centerpiece sculpture called "the infusary," which stores and pours housemade infused liquors. The Albert (named after Einstein, of course) also has a 20-seat chef's table.

<http://www.restaurantbusinessonline.com/ideas/innovations/6-concepts-check-out-your-summer-travels#page=6>