

NOTICE TO THE BAR

New Jersey Judiciary Launches Expanded Electronic Filing System

The New Jersey Judiciary has expanded its court filing system to better accommodate attorneys and self-represented litigants during the COVID-19 health emergency. The Judiciary Electronic Document Submission (JEDS) system allows attorneys and self-represented litigants to submit their filings electronically in most areas of the family and special civil parts as well as general equity. The Judiciary will continue to add case types as the system is developed further. While the JEDS system was in development before the pandemic, it has been made available sooner in light of the courts' suspension of most in-person proceedings and matters to prevent the spread of COVID-19. The link to JEDS is through the njcourts.gov website at <https://njcourts.gov/selfhelp/jeds.html>

Please know that you can continue to utilize eCourts for most divisions and you can still mail documents to the courthouse. If you need to drop off documents, there still is a drop box located in the lobby of the Court Street entrance in front of the security office. Documents are picked up a few times a day from the drop box.

Please note that the most up to date information about the Judiciary can be found online at njcourts.gov.
